Society's Warrior Class Inside A Policeman's Mind:

Class Warrior E. T. Kingsley, 2022-10-18 In October 1890 Eugene T Kingsley's life changed irrevocably when he was injured in a fall between two rail cars while working as a brakeman on the Northern Pacific Railway Following the amputation of both his legs Kingsley became radicalized and joined the Socialist Labor Party in San Francisco His activism eventually brought him to Vancouver B C where he founded the Socialist Party of Canada A self described uncompromising enemy of class rule and class robbery Kingsley wrote prolifically on the exploitation of wage slaves by the capitalist class Also known as a passionate orator he went on to become one of the most prominent socialist intellectuals of his day Class Warrior is a collection of Kingsley's writing and speeches that underscores his tremendous impact on Canadian political discourse

Society's Warrior Class Marc C. Barry, 2003 As a police officer in today's society there are a number of issues that we must face each and every day whether we are on or off duty The problems we face and must overcome can be very overwhelming at times We have been described as being a closed society with a warrior mentality and tribal instincts We live among other cops associate with other cops and spend much of the normal daily tasks with only other policemen It's the us against them syndrome When facing death destruction and the drags of society in which the public does not have to notice it wears on you harshly Over 150 police officers die in the line of duty every year but more than double that commit suicide Throughout this book I hope not only to entertain you but also to share my experiences and feelings and show you a different yet very real side of being a police officer who is out there in the streets every day handling everything imaginable under the sun As police officers it is instilled in us very early to be fair and impartial professional and courageous and most important not to show our emotions or feelings We do this each and every day in every situation we are thrown into Whether it is a domestic fight a neighbor's barking dog or a dead child floating in a pool This is a very difficult lifestyle emotions run rampant up and down like a roller coaster and with intensity levels only measurable by a Richter scale The police officer you most commonly will encounter is the person in uniform shiny badge neatly pressed shirt thick duty belt and glossed shoes on patrol on duty However there is another your next door neighbor who eats drinks sleeps cuts his grass on weekends and has a family Police officers are human just like everybody else We are selected from society and there are good and bad in everything Unfortunately a policeman's job is enforcing laws and when you encounter one he/she is most likely doing their job which becomes a negative contact for you if you are on the receiving end Regardless when you call the police for help we will be there We do not turn away dangerous situations we do not back down and we will not run State Troopers Magazine, 1920 Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1919 Are You Getting Enlightened Or Losing Your Mind? Dennis Gersten, Larry Dossey, 1997 Lily Tomlin once asked Why is it that it's called prayer when we talk to God but when he answers back it's called schizophrenia Almost half of all Americans claim to have had an unusual spiritual experience and as many more have had problems handling stress anxiety and depression In Are You Getting Enlightened or

Losing Your Mind Dr Gersten a practicing psychiatrist for twenty years recounts his experiences with his patients to answer questions about the entire spectrum of human consciousness A doctor of the soul Gersten clearly differentiates between miracles and madness spiritual emergence and mental emergency as well as the everyday stresses that affect our states of mind Dr Gersten demonstrates how a spiritual practice can positively influence our mental health and emotional well being His unique step by step program of meditations breathwork and imagery for mental fitness will enhance your peace of mind sharpen your focus and alertness teach you imagery techniques for gaining perspective on your problems and strengthen your core values Visit the Gersten Institute at www.imagerynet.com

Handbook of Contemporary Paganism Murphy Pizza, James R. Lewis, 2009 Contemporary Paganism is a movement that is still young and establishing its identity and place on the global religious landscape The members of the movement are simultaneously growing unifying and maintaining its characteristic diversity of traditions identities and rituals The modern Pagan movement has had a restless formation period but has also been the catalyst for some of the most innovative religious expressions praxis theologies and communities As Contemporary Paganism continues to grow and mature new angles of inquiry about it have emerged and are explored in this collection This examination and study of contemporary Paganism contributes new ways to observe and examine other religions where innovations paradoxes and inconsistencies can be more accurately documented and explained Journal of the Royal Society of Arts, 1863 Journal of the Society of Arts Royal Society of Arts (Great Britain), 1863

The Nightwatchman Hlonipha Mokoena, 2025-08 The Nightwatchman Essays on Portraiture and the Black Male Figure in Colonial South Africa brings into focus the African policeman as a subject of portraiture While colonial governments co-opted and conscripted Africans into military and policing services it was after the Zulu defeat of the English in the battle of Isandlwana that a genre of photography developed around images of the Zulu warrior and Zulu policeman In this illustrated book Hlonipha Mokoena extends the literature on colonial ethnographic photography by creating a narrative of nightwatchman portraiture from the rich archive of images Although the origins of this genre lay in the representation of Fingoes amaMfengu during the frontier wars she argues that an ethnological spectacle of the Zulu male body was inaugurated after the last Zulu king Cetshwayo was photographed as a posing subject While much research has focussed on the African man employed in emasculating labour or as a functionary of settler power this book shifts debates about how the body moves in history Placed in uniform the male subject becomes aestheticised and admired Mokoena focuses less on the idiosyncrasies of the uniform than on the sartorial selection processes and co-optation of colonial aesthetic culture that constructed the idea of the Nonqgqayi or nightwatchman as a fully formed photographic presence The beauty captured in these images upends conceptions of colonial photography as a tool of oppression In its focus on the figure of the black and brown fighting man The Nightwatchman offers an innovative work on the history of portraiture and dress in colonial South Africa Incorporating insights from African history art history anthropology and critical theory it offers new insights about the use of men of colour in colonial warfare and new avenues for the interpretation of visual representations of the black male figure Harper's Weekly John Bonner, George William Curtis, Henry Mills Alden, Samuel Stillman Conant, Montgomery Schuyler, John Foord, Richard Harding Davis, Carl Schurz, Henry Loomis Nelson, John Kendrick Bangs, George Brinton McClellan Harvey, Norman Hapgood, 1857 Journal of the Society of Arts, 1863 Hidatsa Social and Ceremonial Organization Alfred W. Bowers, 1965 Hidatsa Social and Ceremonial Organization a study of an important horticultural Plains Indian tribe synthesizes the rich material Alfred W Bowers recorded in the early 1930s from the last generation of Hidatsas who lived in the historic village of Like a Fishhook This documentary record of their nineteenth century lifeways is now a classic in American ethnography The book is distinguished for its presentation of extensive personal and ritual narratives that allow Hidatsa elders to articulate directly their conceptions of traditional culture It combines archeological and ethnographic approaches to reconstruct a Hidatsa culture history that is shaped by a concern for cultural detail stemming from the American ethnographic tradition of Franz Boas At the same time its concern for the understanding of social structure reflects the influence of the British structural functional approach of A R Radcliffe Brown The most comprehensive account ever published on the Hidatsas it is of enduring value and interest The Origins of Democracy in Tribes, City-States and Nation-States Ronald M. Glassman, 2017-06-19 This four part work describes and analyses democracy and despotism in tribes city states and nation states The theoretical framework used in this work combines Weberian Aristotelian evolutionary anthropological and feminist theories in a comparative historical context The dual nature of humans as both an animal and a consciously aware being underpins the analysis presented Part One covers tribes It uses anthropological literature to describe the campfire democracy of the African Bushmen the Pygmies and other band societies Its main focus is on the tribal democracy of the Cheyenne Iroquois Huron and other tribes and it pays special attention to the role of women in tribal democracies Part Two describes the city states of Mesopotamia Syria and Canaan Phoenicia and includes a section on the theocracy of the Jews This part focuses on the transition from tribal democracy to city state democracy in the ancient Middle East from the Sumerian city states to the Phoenician Part Three focuses on the origins of democracy and covers Greece Mycenaean Dorian and the Golden Age It presents a detailed description of the tribal democracy of Archaic Greece emphasizing the causal effect of the hoplite phalanx military formation in egalitarianizing Greek tribal society Next it analyses the transition from tribal to city state democracy with the new commercial classes engendering the oligarchic and democratic conflicts described by Plato and Aristotle Part Four describes the Norse tribes as they contacted Rome the rise of kingships the renaissance of the city states and the parliamentary monarchies of the emerging nation states It provides details of the rise of commercial city states in Renaissance Italy Hanseatic Germany and somewhere far in the north there stood a high peak of iron which was a hundred miles high and a hundred miles wide And how a little bird came to it once every thousand years to sharpen its beak And how when the mountain was gone a single second of all eternity would have passed by I heard it told as a child I remembered it always and I told it to my own boys when they began to learn history It seemed the invention of some prehistoric Hans Christian Andersen It belonged to the imaginary scenery of our dreams The story has come true and I have found my old mountain where I least expected it To make the cycle of coincidence perfect this hill was named after a bird The Lapp with a fine sense of sound called the ptarmigan Kiru Kirunavaara no longer hears the shrill kiru kiru of rising birds Twice a day it listens to the terrific detonation of half a hundred charges of dynamite Then it is shaken by the little trains which carry the rock to the valley In the evening it sees the lights of the large electric engines which hoist the valuable metal across the arctic wilderness of Lake Tornotrask Two months later the ore has been melted and worked into those modern articles of trade which go by the name of bridges and automobiles and ships and apartment houses and a thousand other things which once promised to elevate man from the ranks of the beasts of burden What has become of that promise the survivors of the last eight years know with great if gruesome accuracy Even the humble Lapp has heard of the great upheaval and has asked why the white people should kill each other when the whole world was full of reindeer and when God has given us the hills and the plains so that forever there should be food enough for the long days of summer and the longer nights of the endless winter
