C. Wright Mills

Mills, C. Wright. "The Promise." In The Sociological Imagination. Oxford University Press, 1959.

- Being Trapped/introduction (p. 1)
  - Life is full of traps:
    - Personal troubles cannot be overcome
    - It is all around the person's job, family, or income (p. 1)

  - Society rises, and a person falls:
    - someone can become poor or rich
    - a person can lose their job while the other one gains one
    - people get separated and are alone (p. 1)
- Defining Troubles and sociological changes (p. 1)
  - Trouble is all about what happens during history:
    - is not entirely true
    - is mainly about how they associate themselves with their own lives and the course of history (p. 1)
      - It's all about intricate connections and history-making
      - people can't see this because their troubles blind them.

  - History shows the drastic changes in society:
    - It happens when we see how different each gender acts and how the gender roles are switched
    - "The history that now affects every individual in world history. Within this scene and this period, in the course of a single generation, one-sixth of humankind is transformed from all that is feudal and backward into all that is modern, advanced, and fearful. " (Mills, 1)
- The Shaping of History depends on information and what someone needs to know (p.2)
