Speaking American Zevi Gutfreund, 2019-03-07 When Lyndon B Johnson signed the Bilingual Education Act of 1968 language learning became a touchstone in the emerging culture wars Nowhere was this more apparent than in Los Angeles where elected officials from both political parties had supported the legislation and where the most disruptive protests over it occurred The city with its diverse population of Latinos and Asian Americans is the ideal locus for Zevi Gutfreund's study of how language instruction informed the social construction of American citizenship Combining the history of language instruction school desegregation and civil rights activism as it unfolded in Japanese American and Mexican American communities in L A this timely book clarifies the critical and evolving role of language instruction in twentieth century American politics Speaking American reveals how for generations language instruction offered a forum for Angelino educators to articulate their responses to policies that racialized access to citizenship from the national origins immigration quotas of the Progressive Era through Congress's removal of race from these quotas in 1965 Meanwhile immigrant communities designed language experiments to counter efforts to limit their liberties Gutfreund's book is the first to place the experiences of Mexican Americans and Japanese Americans side by side as they navigated debates over Americanization programs intercultural education school desegregation and bilingual education In the process the book shows these language experiments helped Angelino immigrants introduce competing concepts of citizenship that were tied to their actions and deeds rather than to the English language itself Complicating the usual top down approach to the history of racial politics in education Speaking American recognizes the ways in which immigrant and ethnic activists as well as white progressives and conservatives have been deeply invested in controlling public and private aspects of language instruction in Los Angeles The book brings compelling analytic depth and breadth to its examination of the social and political landscape in a city still at the epicenter of American immigration politics

Do You Speak American? Robert Macneil, William Cran, 2007-12-18 Is

American English in decline Are regional dialects dying out Is there a difference between men and women in how they adapt to linguistic variations These questions and more about our language catapulted Robert MacNeil and William Cran the authors with Robert McCrum of the language classic The Story of English across the country in search of the answers Do You Speak American is the tale of their discoveries which provocatively show how the standard for American English if a standard exists is changing quickly and dramatically On a journey that takes them from the Northeast through Appalachia and the Deep South and west to California the authors observe everyday verbal interactions and in a host of interviews with native speakers glean the linguistic quirks and traditions characteristic of each area While examining the histories and controversies surrounding both written and spoken American English they address anxieties and assumptions that when explored are highly emotional such as the growing influence of Spanish as a threat to American English and the special treatment of African American vernacular English And challenging the purists who think grammatical standards are in serious deterioration and that media saturation of our culture is homogenizing our speech they surprise us with unpredictable responses With insight and wit MacNeil and Cran bring us a compelling book that is at once a celebration and a potent study of our singular language Each wave of immigration has brought new words to enrich the American language Do you recognize the origin of 1 blunderbuss sleigh stoop coleslaw boss waffle Or 2 dumb ouch shyster check kaput scram bumper Or 3 phooey pastrami glitch kibbitz schnozzle Or 4 broccoli espresso pizza pasta macaroni radio Or 5 smithereens lollapalooza speakeasy hooligan Or 6 vamoose chaps stampede mustang ranch corral 1 Dutch 2 German 3 Yiddish 4 Italian 5 Irish 6 Spanish
