iChicana Power! Maylei Blackwell, 2016-06-27 The first book length study of women's involvement in the Chicano Movement of the late 1960s and 1970s Chicana Power tells the powerful story of the emergence of Chicana feminism within student and community based organizations throughout southern California and the Southwest As Chicanos engaged in widespread protest in their struggle for social justice civil rights and self determination women in el movimiento became increasingly militant about the gap between the rhetoric of equality and the organizational culture that suppressed women's leadership and subjected women to chauvinism discrimination and sexual harassment Based on rich oral histories and extensive archival research Maylei Blackwell analyzes the struggles over gender and sexuality within the Chicano Movement and illustrates how those struggles produced new forms of racial consciousness gender awareness and political identities Chicana Power provides a critical genealogy of pioneering Chicana activist and theorist Anna Nieto Gomez and the Hijas de Cuauht moc one of the first Latina feminist organizations who together with other Chicana activists forged an autonomous space for women's political participation and challenged the gendered confines of Chicano nationalism in the movement and in the formation of the field of Chicana studies She uncovers the multifaceted vision of liberation that continues to reverberate today as contemporary activists artists and intellectuals both grassroots and academic struggle for revise and rework the political legacy of Chicana feminism

Latina/o Discourse in Vernacular Spaces Michelle A. Holling, Bernadette M. Calafell, 2011-02-22 Taking up the charge to study discourses of marginalized groups while simultaneously extending scholarship about Latina/os in the field of Communication Latina/o Discourse in Vernacular Spaces Somos de Una Voz provides the most current work examining the vernacular voices of Latina/os The editors of this diverse collection structure the book along four topics Locating Foundations Citizenship and Belonging The Politics of Self Representation and Trans National Voices that are guided by the organizing principle of voz voces voice voices Voz voces resonates not only in intellectual endeavors but also in public arenas in which perceptions of Latina/os being of one voice circulate The study of voz voces proceeds from a variety of sites including cultural myth social movement music testimonios a website and autoethnographic performance By questioning and addressing the politics of voz voces the essays collectively underscore the complexity that shapes Latina/o multivocality Ultimately the contours of Latina/o vernacular expressions call attention to the ways that these unique communities continue to craft identities that transform social understandings of who Latina/os are to engage in forms of resistance that alter relations of power and to challenge self and dominant representations Youth Cultures Paul Hodkinson, Wolfgang Deicke, 2007-06-07

Featuring both well known and emerging scholars from the UK the USA and mainland Europe this fascinating new volume addresses core theoretical and methodological developments before going on to examine key substantive themes in the study of young people's identities and lifestyles The Latino/a Condition Richard Delgado, Jean Stefancic, 2011 Richard

Delgado is University Professor at Seattle University Law School The Gig Economy Brian Dolber, Michelle Rodino-Colocino, Chenjerai Kumanyika, Todd Wolfson, 2021-05-30 This edited collection examines the gig economy in the age of convergence from a critical political economic perspective Contributions explore how media technology and labor are converging to create new modes of production as well as new modes of resistance From rideshare drivers in Los Angeles to domestic workers in Delhi from sex work to podcasting this book draws together research that examines the gig economy's exploitation of workers and their resistance Employing critical theoretical perspectives and methodologies in a variety of national contexts contributors consider the roles that media policy culture and history as well as gender race and ethnicity play in forging working conditions in the gig economy Contributors examine the complex and historical relationships between media and gig work integral to capitalism with the aim of exposing and ultimately ending exploitation This book will appeal to students and scholars examining questions of technology media and labor across media and communication studies information studies and labor studies as well as activists journalists and policymakers Narratives of Mexican American Women Alma M. García, 2004 Alma García offers a bold new interpretation of identity formation for second generation immigrants in America The narratives of Mexican American women in higher education reveal their journeys of self discovery a process filled with tensions contradictions and ambiguities García captures the spirit of their struggles to understand their sense of self culture and society Her qualitative analyses reveal the emergent processes by which these women negotiate ethnic gender and class identities with their Mexican immigrant parents and with their university communities Garc a integrates a wide range of theoretical frameworks to study educational life experiences Her findings offer significant insight into the processes of cultural continuity and change and the potential for upward mobility for immigrants Garc a proposes new university policies and curriculum changes to improve the situation for second generation students She calls for the reform of higher education in the United States to open its doors more widely to Mexican American students and other underrepresented groups to make the educational system truly reflective of the ethnic diversity that has always formed the core of American society Garc a s new book is a valuable contribution to Mexican American studies ethnic studies women s studies comparative education and sociology
