

22 Powerful Tips for More Effective Preaching or Public Speaking

I have been doing public speaking now for nearly 40 years. I was part of the Debating Team at Pictou High and also used to enter Public Speaking Competitions. At 20 I joined the staff of a church and have been preaching/speaking ever since. So here are my tips to speak effectively.

1. Preparation Preparation Preparation. There is simply no better tip to be a better public speaker than being prepared. So prepare thoroughly.
2. Know a bit about your audience. What is the average age? Are they mostly males or females or a balance of both? How long have they been sitting listening to speakers before you are on? Is your session straight after lunch, right at the end of the day or first thing in the morning?
3. Know how long you have to speak for.
4. Know what Microphone you will be using. Is it a head set, is it a hand held or is it fixed to the lectern?
5. Preparation on your topic. Make sure you know what you are talking about. Sounds like an obvious statement but trust me I have heard some shocking speeches in my time, from people who had no idea what they were talking about.
6. Practice Practice Practice. I have been speaking for 25 years and I will still run through at least twice, a speech or a preach. Firstly, this allows me to see how it flows. Secondly, it shows me how long it is going to go for. Thirdly, it shows me my weak areas that I need to work on. Fourthly....it helps me when I am delivering the speech to know where I am heading without having to read too much.
7. When it comes to practice....trying speaking your speech to the TV – while it is on – When I was first starting out, I used to run through my preaches with the Channel 10 News on. This way when I was speaking and a baby would cry, or people would be walking around – I had trained myself not to be distracted by noise and movement.
8. Don't make unsubstantiated claims. If you are preaching – back up what you are saying from the bible. If you are making a different kind of speech, back up your claims with quotes or stats with information from credible sources.
9. Speak in points. I like to speak with points. Even this blog is written in points. I think in points and I find that if I am somehow stuffing up point 4, then I can move on to point 5 and its like a fresh start. For me I also find having clear points helps me be organised, concise and know exactly where I am.
10. Dress slightly better than your audience.
11. Use props. This is how people will remember you and remember your message. I met a young man from England recently who was just a young guy when I spoke in a church in Sheffield where he attended back in 2006. He said that he remembered how I smashed eggs all over the stage – this is 12 years after the message. (I was speaking on brokenness). Props work. But use them well. I have seen some preaches with tragic use of props.
12. Don't plagiarize someone else's material. If you are using someone else's material then give due credit.

Speaking From The Pulpit A Guide To Effective Preaching:

A Guide to Preaching and Leading Worship William H. Willimon, 1984 A Guide to the Study of the Christian Religion William Herbert Perry Faunce, 1916 Equipped for Good Work Cothen, Th.D., Joe H., 2002 Homiletical Handbook Donald L. Hamilton, 1992-10-01

Homiletical Handbook is a primer for those who are called to preach. It is intentionally simple in its explanation of the homiletical task and straightforward in getting to the point. It is solid in its theology and biblical in its approach.

Power in the Pulpit Jerry Vines, James L. Shaddix, 1999-06-10

The call to preach is just that a call to preach. The call to preach however is more than just preaching. The call to preach is a call to prepare. Too many pastors have refrained from preparation while they await the Holy Spirit to do all of the work. God expects preachers to prepare sermons as much as possible and allow Him to prepare the preachers. Join Dr. Jerry Vines and Dr. Jim Shaddix as they achieve a balanced approach to teaching sermon preparation in Power in the Pulpit. This book combines the essential perspectives of a pastor of forty years with another pastor who also devotes daily time to training pastors in the context of theological education. Thus Power in the Pulpit is a practical preaching help from a pastoral perspective in the tradition where expository preaching is a paramount and frequent event in the life of the local church. Power in the Pulpit is the combined work of Dr. Vines's two earlier publications on preaching: A Practical Guide to Sermon Preparation (Moody Press, 1985) and A Guide to Effective Sermon Delivery (Moody Press, 1986). Dr. Shaddix carefully organizes and supplements the material to offer this useful resource which closes the gap between classroom theory and what a pastor experiences in his weekly sermon preparation.

The Equipper's Guide to Every-Member Ministry R. Paul Stevens, 2000-07

Making Good Preaching Better Alvin C. Rueter, 2017-06-16

Making Good Preaching Better explores not the preaching of ethics but the ethics of preaching. Using sound theology and practical insights, this book shows that by putting themselves in the place of the people in the pews, preachers can improve their sermons and make good preaching better, more consistently. Written with the practicing homilist in mind, Making Good Preaching Better helps motivate and sharpen the skills of those in preaching ministry. Laid out as a teaching tool for classroom use, it also makes the work of the homiletic professor easier. Reverend Rueter explains how the same qualities—visual, oral, cohesive—that make it possible for preachers to remember their sermons also make it possible for parishioners to remember these sermons. He also explores concepts not covered in other homiletics books such as the legitimate appeal to self interest as observed in Jesus Paul and Moses how to deal with hard controversial topics and tips for remembering homilies Reverend Rueter bases his approach on the time proven step by step pedagogy used in the first century schools of rhetoric He believes that requiring novices to prepare whole homilies for criticism presents too many possibilities for failure and thus discouragement With its step by step homiletical exercises Making Good Preaching Better gives students greater possibilities of the joy of success inputting together entire homilies one step at a time Making Good Preaching Better offers three minute oral exercises to be performed before a video camera Each exercise uses the theological homiletical principles explained in that chapter and includes suggestions on how to conduct the video lab sessions without provoking dread but rather by promoting affirmation Fourteen homilies by the author and others are supplied for both professionals and novices to critique To supplement the instruction recommendations for additional readings are provided at the end of each chapter Roman Catholic and Protestant clergy seminarians and those in Roman Catholic diaconate formation programs will benefit from this practical textbook Reverend Rueter wrote this book asking several questions How does rhetoric agree with Christian theology Why aren t homiletics books laid out as teaching tools and Why don t we teach homilists the skills of rhetoric He answers with Making Good Preaching Better Alvin C Rueter Ph D a Lutheran pastor conducts preaching workshops and teaches homiletics in the Formation Program for Permanent Deacons for the Archdiocese of St Paul and Minneapolis He also teaches homiletics at the School of Theology St John s University Collegeville Minnesota He also hosts and produces a weekly radio program Sing for Joy and for several years wrote a monthly column People Centered Preaching for Emphasis He earned a Ph D in speech communication from the University of Minnesota
