

A woman with glasses and a green headband is shown in a state of spiritual fervor, with her hands raised high in the air. She is wearing a dark purple t-shirt. The background is slightly blurred, showing other people in a similar state of worship. The overall lighting is warm and focused on the woman.

Speaking In Tongues Poetry By Linguists:

Speaking in Tongues Bradley R. Strahan, Donna Jo Napoli, Emily Norwood Rando, 1994 The Cambridge Companion to the Poem Sean Pryor, 2024-06-06 What is a poem What ideas about the poem as such shape how readers and audiences encounter individual poems To explore these questions the first section of this Companion addresses key conceptual issues from singularity and genre to the poem's historical exchanges with the song and the novel The second section turns to issues of form focusing on voice rhythm image sound diction and style The third section considers the poem's social and cultural lives It examines the poem in the archive and in the digital sphere as well as in relation to decolonization and global capitalism The chapters in this volume range across both canonical and non canonical poems poems from the past and the present and poems by a diverse set of poets This book will be a key resource for students and scholars studying the poem

Russian and American Poetry of Experiment Vladimir Feshchenko, 2023-07-17 An experiment with language Is it an object cultivated in poetic laboratories where entry is locked for mere mortals And what do language scholars think about it Specialists in language and literature studies interested in linguistic innovation and experimental poetry will find answers to these questions in Vladimir Feshchenko's book The study investigates various strategies of radical linguistic creativity in Russian and American experimental writing of the 20th century and explores cases of contemporary language oriented and trans language poetry It is a comparative examination of two national avant garde cultures but also a juxtaposition of the relationships that Russian and American avant garde poetics had with linguistic ideas of their times The monograph may serve as a wonderful introduction to the entire field of linguistic poetics of the avant garde Contemporary Poetry Nerys Williams, 2011-04-06 Discussing the work of more than 60 poets from the US UK Ireland Australia New Zealand and the Caribbean Nerys Williams guides students through the key ideas and movements in the study of poetry today

Charismatic Glossolalia Mark J. Cartledge, 2017-05-15 What is the nature and function of the Pentecostal Charismatic gift of speaking in tongues Charismatic Glossolalia aims to answer this question Drawing on detailed observations and interviews with people who themselves speak in tongues as well as survey data Cartledge presents explanations on the meaning of this gift for both the participants and their churches Cartledge argues that an understanding of the gift of speaking in tongues emerges as a symbol of divine human encounter especially associated with the context of prayer and worship and symbolising a sense of beauty awe power intimacy and faith building In theological terms speaking in tongues may be described as trinitarian sacramental and as demonstrating an important feature of the Kingdom of God An extensive literature review considers material from the New Testament Pentecostal and Charismatic theology and the behavioural and social sciences This book offers a unique contribution to Pentecostal and Charismatic scholarship as well as the emerging scholarly tradition of Practical Theology The Linguistic Moment Joseph Hillis Miller, 2014-07-14 This series of readings explores the functioning of moments in poems when the medium language becomes an issue Originally published in 1985 The

Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Language Through the Looking Glass Marina Yaguella, 1998 To play with language is to break its rules disrupt its patterns exploit its weak points Thus paradoxically puns and spoonerisms neologisms and slogans reveal and highlight the patterns to which discourse conforms patterns which reflect the linguistic competence of language speakers Only those who have linguistics competence can play with it thus language games and the poetic use of language are underpinned by unconscious use of linguistic analysis Using Lewis Carroll's Alice as a starting point Marina Yaguella takes the reader on an unconventional voyage around language charting the major themes of linguistics on the way She shows that we can come to an understanding of language in general and of particular languages through exploring the devices of humour word games and poetry devices which reveal the unconscious linguist in all of us The result is an entertaining but rigorous introduction to language and linguistics for non specialists and students alike

The Hand at Work Susanne Strätling, 2021-12-14 Art New Vision This formula shaped the avant garde With moving images abruptly expanding the boundaries of the visible world new printing techniques triggering a pictorial turn in graphic art and literature becoming almost inseparable from visual media we still regard the avant garde as heyday for modernism's obsession with the eye But what are the blind spots of this optocentrism Focusing on the gestures of giving touching showing and handcrafting this study examines key scenes of tactile interaction between subject and artifact Hand movements manual maneuvers and manipulations challenge optics and expose the crises of a visually dominated perspective on the arts The readings of this book call for a revision of an optically obscured aesthetics and poetics to include haptic experience as an often overlooked but pivotal part of the making as well as the perception of literature and the arts Literature and the Senses Annette Kern-Stähler, Elizabeth Robertson, 2023 This collection of essays breaks new ground in the field of sensory studies Organized around the five traditional senses followed by a section on multisensoriality the collection facilitates a dialogue between scholars working on literature written from the Middle Ages to the present day
