Japan and Korea Frank Joseph Shulman, 2013-10-23 First Published in 1971 This annotated bibliography of doctoral dissertations on Japan and Korea grew out of a decision to expand and bring up to date an earlier list entitled Unpublished Doctoral Dissertations Relating to Japan Accepted in the Universities of Australia Canada Great Britain and the United States 1946 1963 compiled by Peter Cornwall and issued by the Center for Japanese Studies in 1965 Japan's new security partnerships Wilhelm Vosse, Paul Midford, 2018-08-17 After decades of solely relying on the United States for its national security needs over the last decade Japan has begun to actively develop and deepen its security ties with a growing number of countries and actors in the Asia Pacific region and Europe a development that has further intensified under the Shinzo Abe administration This is the first book that provides a comprehensive analysis of the motives and objectives from both the Japanese and the partner countries perspectives and asks what this might mean for the security architecture in the Asia Pacific region and what lessons can be learned for security cooperation more broadly This book is for those interested in Japan's security policy beyond the US Japan security alliance and non US centred bilateral and multilateral security cooperation It is an ideal textbook for undergraduate and graduate level courses on regional security cooperation and strategic partnerships and Japanese foreign and security policy

Finding Japan Anne Park Shannon, 2012 Today's headlines often feature stories about new trade agreements with Asian countries but tapping eastern markets has long been a goal of Canadian commerce When the Canadian Pacific Railway reached its terminus in British Columbia which was seen as the launching point for trade in the Far East particularly with China and Japan The history of members of those cultures immigrating to Canada is well documented but there has been little written on Canadians venturing across the Pacific from west to east When adventurers first crossed the Pacific from BC in the 19th century they encountered the closely guarded shores of Japan a society emerging from 200 years of self imposed isolation and transforming from a largely feudal country into a modern world power Curious outsiders had for centuries been unable to penetrate the land of shoguns This collection of stories begins with Ranald Macdonald who tempted fate by intentionally shipwrecking himself off the coast of Japan in 1848 and takes readers through to 1945 As Japan slowly opened up to foreign influences the new arrivals proved to be an intriguing and diverse cast of adventurers missionaries businessmen social activists soldiers and misfits

Harry Emerson Wildes,1927 Japan's Nationalist Right in the Internet Age Jeffrey J. Hall,2021-04-07 Japan's nationalist right have used the internet to organize offline activism in increasingly visible ways Hall investigates the role of internet mediated activism in Japan's ongoing historical and territorial disputes He explores the emergence of two right wing activist organizations Nihon Bunka Channel Sakura and Ganbare Nippon which have played a significant role in pressure campaigns against Japanese media outlets campaigns to influence historical memorials and campaigns to assert Japan's territorial claim to the Senkaku Diaoyu Islands Taking a multi disciplinary approach he analyses how activists maintained cohesion raised funds held protests that regularly drew hundreds to thousands of participants and used fishing boats to land activists on disputed islands Detailing events that took place between 2004 and 2020 he demonstrates how skilled social actors built cohesive grassroots protest organizations through the creation of shared meaning for their organization and its supporters A valuable read both for scholars seeking insight into the dynamics surrounding Japan's history disputes and territorial issues as well as those seeking to compare Japanese right wing internet activism with its counterparts elsewhere Publications League of Nations,1924
