PETE FISHER • MARC RUBIN

First day of class. Five boys bad-ass down the block on their way to an early joint in Riverside Park. Another plays Stevie Wonder on his stolen Panasonic to ease himself awake. Hungover from too much Scotch and grass, another leaves Red Hook wearing the embroidered denim of THE DEADLY GHOULS, and carrying fifteen dollars hustled the night before in his pocket.

The teachers come too with their own lives and dreams: Rich Walsh, congratulating himself on his journey from a South Bronx youth gang to Directorship of the Lennox School. Keith Jones, hoping for an all-black school of his own. And Bob Davidson, uncomfortably aware that he is carrying a time bomb. The staff knows he's gay, but the students don't—and he's been filmed for a soon-to-be-aired TV documentary talking about being a gay teacher.

These boys and teachers are the Lennox School, a "special" school where a week-long absence may be spent in Riker's Island Detention Center, or where any student's father may be the neighborhood child molester. What happens here when a teacher comes out? The question is movingly answered in this finely-crafted novel about the effect on such a world of an act of honesty, performed with reluctance, relief, and love.
