Spectacles Of Truth In Classical Greek Philosophy Theoria In Its Cultural Context:

Spectacles of Truth in Classical Greek Philosophy Andrea Wilson Nightingale, 2004-08-12 In fourth century Greece BCE the debate over the nature of philosophy generated a novel claim that the highest form of wisdom is theoria the rational vision of metaphysical truths the spectator theory of knowledge This 2004 book offers an original analysis of the construction of theoretical philosophy in fourth century Greece In the effort to conceptualise and legitimise theoretical philosophy the philosophers turned to a venerable cultural practice theoria state pilgrimage In this practice an individual journeyed abroad as an official witness of sacralized spectacles This book examines the philosophic appropriation and transformation of theoria and analyses the competing conceptions of theoretical wisdom in fourth century philosophy By tracing the link between traditional and philosophic theoria this book locates the creation of theoretical philosophy in its historical context analysing theoria as a cultural and an intellectual practice It develops a new interdisciplinary approach drawing on philosophy history and literary studies

Spectacles of Truth in Classical Greek Philosophy Andrea Wilson Nightingale, 2004 In an effort to conceptualize and legitimize theoretical philosophy the Greek philosophers turned to a venerable cultural practice theoria state pilgrimage In this traditional practice an individual journeyed abroad to officially witness sacralized spectacles This book examines the philosophic appropriations and transformations of the practice of theoria

The Politics of Viewing in Xenophon's Historical Narratives Rosie Harman, 2023-01-12 This book considers cultural identity and power relations in early fourth century BCE Greece through a reading of Xenophon's historical narratives the Hellenica Anabasis and Cyropaedia These texts depict conflicts between Greek states conflicts between Greeks and non Greeks and relations between the elite individual and society In all three texts politically significant moments are imagined in visual terms We witness spectacles of Spartan military victory vistas of Asian landscape or displays of Persian imperial pomp and historical protagonists are presented as spectators viewing and responding to events Through this visual form of narration the reader is encouraged imaginatively to place themselves in the position of the historical protagonists In viewing events from different perspectives and therefore occupying multiple often conflicting political positions the reader not only experiences the problems faced by historical actors but becomes engaged in the political conflicts acted out in the narratives The reader is prompted to take pleasure in the sight of Panhellenic achievement but also to witness the divisions and conflicts between Greeks on class and ethnic lines Similarly the reader is invited to identify with spectacular Greek and non Greek figures of power as emblems of Greek imperial potential but also to see through the eyes of those communities subjugated at their hands The depiction of spectacles and spectators draws the reader into an active participation in the ideological contradictions of their time in a period when Panhellenic aspiration co existed with hegemonic competition between Greek states and when Greeks could be both beneficiaries and victims of imperialism

Cultures of Mathematics and Logic Shier Ju, Benedikt Löwe, Thomas Müller, Yun Xie, 2016-08-10 This book gathers the proceedings of the conference Cultures of Mathematics and Logic held in

Guangzhou China The event was the third in a series of interdisciplinary international conferences emphasizing the cultural components of philosophy of mathematics and logic It brought together researchers from many disciplines whose work sheds new light on the diversity of mathematical and logical cultures and practices In this context the cultural diversity can be diachronical different cultures in different historical periods geographical different cultures in different regions or sociological in nature

Poetic Justice Jill Frank,2018-01-20 Plato set his dialogues in the fifth century BCE when written texts were disseminated primarily by performance and recitation He wrote them in the fourth century when literacy was expanding Jill Frank argues that there are unique insights to be gained from appreciating Plato s dialogues as written texts to be read and reread At the center of these insights is the analogy in the dialogues between becoming literate and coming to know or understand something and two different ways of learning to read One approach treats literacy as a top down affair in which authoritative teachers lead students to true beliefs Another recommended by Socrates in the Republic encourages trial and error and the formation of beliefs based on students cognitive and sensory experiences The first approach to learning to read aligns with philosophy as authoritative knowledge and politics as rule by philosopher kings Following the second approach Poetic Justice argues that the Republic neither endorses nor enforces fixed hierarchies in knowledge and politics but offers instead an education in ethical and political self governance one that prompts citizens to challenge all claims to authority including those of philosophy

Reconciling Ancient and Modern Philosophies of History Aaron Turner,2020-10-26 The distinction between ancient and modern modes of historical thought is characterized by the growing complexity of the discipline of history in modernity Consequently the epistemological and methodological standard of ancient historiography is typically held as inferior against the modern ideal This book serves to address this apparent deficit Its scope is three fold Firstly it aims at encountering ancient modes of historical and historiographical thought within the province of their own horizon Secondly this book considers the possibility of a dialogue between ancient and modern philosophies of history concerning the influence of ancient historical thought on the development of modern philosophy of history and the utility of modern philosophy of history in the interpretation of ancient historiography Thirdly this book explores the continuities and discontinuities in historical method and thought from antiquity to modernity Ultimately this volume demonstrates the necessity of re evaluating our assumptions about the relation of ancient and modern historical thought and lays the groundwork for a more fruitful dialogue in the future

Beauty and the Gods Hugo Shakeshaft,2025-03-25 How ideas and experiences of beauty informed human relationships with the divine in ancient Greece Beginning with the earliest Greek literature the epics of Homer and Hesiod beauty was seen as having a special connection with the divine The gods of ancient Greece were defined by their exceptional beauty even today to look like a Greek god is proverbial for human beauty In Beauty and the Gods Hugo Shakeshaft explores the relationship between the beautiful and divine in ancient Greece principally in the Archaic period ca 750 480 BCE Analysing evidence that ranges from poetry art and philosophical texts to architecture and the natural landscape Shakeshaft shows how ideas and experiences of beauty shaped Greek relations with the divine With a powerful call for the place of beauty and aesthetics in the writing of history Shakeshaft uncovers the cultural dialogue between beauty and the gods in a variety of contexts in the Archaic Greek world in forms of divine worship in poetry music and dance in attitudes to the natural environment and in architecture and art This early chapter of Greek history he argues holds an unrecognised key to understanding some long running threads in the histories of religion art and aesthetics from Plato s aesthetic theories to beauty s status in contemporary discourse Beauty s deep past and divine connection in ancient Greece can help us see beauty now in sharper focus Europe Beyond Universalism and Particularism S. Lindberg,S. Prozorov,M. Ojakangas,2014-07-15 Resulting from an interdisciplinary dialogue between philosophy political science and International Relations about Europe as a political community this volume rethinks the European political project beyond the rigid opposition between universalism and particularism approaching Europe as a space of the exposure of differences to each other Lectio Divina as Contemplative Pedagogy Mary Keator,2017-12-14 Offering an original application of the ancient monastic practice of lectio divina to the humanities this book demonstrates the need for further emphasis on deep reading reflection and contemplation in contemporary university classrooms Each chapter provides readers with an historical overview of the four movements of this monastic method lectio reading meditatio interpreting oratio responding and contemplatio experiencing wisdom and suggests ways to incorporate these practices in humanites courses Keator demonstrates that the lectio divina method is a viable pedagogical tool to guide students slowly and methodically through literary texts and into a subjective experience of wisdom and meaning Classifying Christians Todd S. Berzon,2021-05-25 Classifying Christians investigates late antique Christian heresiologies as ethnographies that catalogued and detailed the origins rituals doctrines and customs of the heretics in explicitly polemical and theological terms Oscillating between ancient ethnographic evidence and contemporary ethnographic writing Todd S Berzon argues that late antique heresiology shares an underlying logic with classical ethnography in the ancient Mediterranean world By providing an account of heresiological writing from the second to fifth century Classifying Christians embeds heresiology within the historical development of imperial forms of knowledge that have shaped western culture from antiquity to the present
