Milton's Angels Joad Raymond,2010-02-25 Milton s Paradise Lost the most eloquent most intellectually daring most learned and most sublime poem in the English language is a poem about angels It is told by and of angels it relies upon their conflicts communications and miscommunications They are the creatures of Milton s narrative through which he sets the Fall of humankind against a cosmic background Milton s angels are real beings and the stories he tells about them rely on his understanding of what they were and how they acted While he was unique in the sublimity of his imaginative rendering of angels he was not alone in writing about them Several early modern English poets wrote epics that explore the actions of and grounds of knowledge about angels Angels were intimately linked to theories of representation and theology could be a creative force Natural philosophers and theologians too found it interesting or necessary to explore angel doctrine Angels did not disappear in Reformation theology though centuries of Catholic traditions were stripped away Protestants used them in inventive ways adapting tradition to new doctrines and to shifting perceptions of the world Angels continued to inhabit all kinds of writing and shape the experience and understanding of the world Milton s Angels The Early Modern Imagination explores the fate of angels in Reformation Britain and shows how and why Paradise Lost is a poem about angels that is both shockingly literal and sublimely imaginative Heaven and Hell Emanuel Swedenborg,1758 The Swedenborg

and in particular of its immensity and of the innumerable societies of which it is composed of the correspondence between the things of heaven and those of earth of the sun of heaven and of the light and heat proceeding therefrom of representative appearances in heaven and of the changes of state experienced by angels of their garments and habitations their language and writings their innocence and wisdom their governments and worship of the origin of heaven and its association with the human race by mean of the Word of the future state of the heathen and of children and of the occupations and joys of angels He also treats of the World of Spirits or the first state of man after death and of the successive changes that he there passes through in preparation for his final abode of the nature of hell and the meaning of the terms devil satan hell fire and gnashing of teeth of the appearance situation and plurality of the hells and of the wickedness and arts of infernal spirits These presentations of the life of heaven and of hell are eminently practical and in harmony with the teachings of Holy Scripture They throw a flood of light upon many parts of the Word and cannot fail to influence the lives of all who study them
