and Ryan as they struggle to survive the aftermath of Ken's death in a world that neither they nor anyone around them really knows how to navigate. As they search for help from friends, family, school, church, grief groups, therapists, and strangers, Valerie gives us a raw look into the unique experience of loss from the perspective of both woman, the unique experience of loss from the perspective of both woman and child, and shares the fallacies that we all hold of the grieving process. From the initial shock of sudden death and the harsh realities of a grieving child to the sticky nuances of being a widowed woman to the surprisingly humorous side of death, This Side of Heaven chronicles exactly how life goes on after loss. you'll never believe what God was wearing when times got tough and the mall closed "sam" seymour, annie "baba" pitts, 2010-01-26

Thirteen of us hanging out at the mall on Saturdays having sleepovers every other weekend sharing histories working through our diversities, our problems with our moms, with boys with zits and being fat, we were pretty sure we had it all together. Until our losses began to stack up in the form of a close friend's death, diversities that threatened to split us up, parents losing their jobs in the deepening recession, some of us losing our homes, some losing our way on top of that, the mall, our favorite hangout haven on the planet closing its doors. And then out of nowhere our lives began to change. Mostly because of the mysterious woman that showed up toward the end of our eighth grade year and the way she shook up our lives forever.
