Social Contexts Of Messages European Monographs In Social Psychology 1:

Social Contexts of Messages E. A. Carswell, Ragnar Rommetveit, 1971 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1972 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Corpus Linguistics and Textual History Percy van Keulen, Willem Th. van Peursen, 2018-07-17 Over the years the use of computers for research has become increasingly important in Biblical Studies However a combination of computational linguistics with diachronic text critical and text historical approaches has hardly ever taken place Quite often there is mutual misunderstanding between computational linguistics and more traditional approaches in the field of linguistics and textual analysis For example in computer assisted research of modern text corpora it is common to treat the text as an unequivocal and unidimensional sequence of characters In Biblical Studies however either text is considered an abstraction the result of a scholarly reconstruction based on the extant textual witnesses Here a fundamental difference in approach reveals itself The present volume tries to overcome the misunderstanding between the various disciplines and to establish how a fruitful interaction of information technology linguistics and textual criticism can contribute to the analysis of ancient texts It addresses questions concerning the confrontation between synchronic and diachronic approaches the role of linguistic analysis in the interpretation of texts and the interaction of linguistic theory and the analysis of linguistic data The first section of this volume contains the papers presented at the CALAP seminar 2003 In the second section different aspects of the interdisciplinary analysis are applied to a selected passage from the Peshitta of Kings Language Contacts at the Crossroads of Disciplines Lea Meriläinen, Heli Paulasto, Helka Riionheimo, 2015-01-12 This volume offers a cross disciplinary insight into language contact research bringing together fresh empirical and theoretical studies from various fields concerning different dimensions of language contact and variation second language acquisition and translation In the present day world of globalization population mobility and information technology the themes of multilingualism and contact induced language change are as topical as ever and research on language contacts and cross linguistic influence has expanded rapidly during the last few decades Along with the increasing specialization of related disciplines their research perspectives methods and terminology have become dispersed although language contact phenomena themselves can rarely be confined within the scope of a single discipline This collection of articles creates dialogue between researchers from different scientific backgrounds thus viewing language contact phenomena from a broader perspective When language contact is re defined to include the mental or cognitive level of contact between different languages and varieties in the minds of language learners or translators salient links are created between the different disciplines dealing with this subject matter The

The Psychology of Populism Joseph P. Forgas,William D. Crano,Klaus Fiedler,2021-02-18 The recent rise of populist politics represent a major challenge for liberal democracies This important book explores the psychological reasons for the rise of populism featuring contributions from leading international researchers in the fields of psychology and political science Unlike liberal democracy based on the Enlightenment values of individual freedom autonomy and rationality both right wing and left wing populism offer collectivist autocratic formulations reminiscent of the evolutionary history and tribal instincts of our species The book offers a comprehensive overview of the psychology of populism covering such phenomena as identity seeking anger and fear collective narcissism grievance norms perceptions of powerlessness and deprivation authoritarianism nationalism radicalism propaganda and persuasion ethnocentrism xenophobia and the effects of globalization The book is divided into four parts Part I deals with the motivational and emotional factors that attract voters to populist causes and the human needs and values that populist movements satisfy Part II analyzes the cognitive features of populist appeals especially their emphasis on simplicity epistemic certainty and moral absolutism Part III turns to one of the defining features of populism its offer of a powerful tribal identity and collectivist ideology that provide meaning and personal significance to its followers Finally in Part IV the propaganda tactics used by populist movements are analysed including the role of charismatic leadership authoritarianism and nationalism and the use of conspiracy narratives and persuasive strategies This is fascinating reading on a highly topical issue The book will be of interest to students researchers and applied professionals in all areas of psychology and the social sciences as a textbook or reference book and to anyone interested in the global rise of populism Please follow this link for an insightful interview by one of the editors of the book Joseph P Forgas <https://www.routledge.com/blog/article/editor-interview-the-psychology-of-populism> We have also created a short promotional video for the book here <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iK1BEF8WyMA>

The Not-Very-Persecuted Church Laura Hunt, 2011-11-01 How do we live distinctively in communities embedded in the world around us The Not Very Persecuted Church provides church leaders pastors and Christians interested in community development with principles for evaluating culture in light of mission Since we are called to live in community the processes that build group identity can help us understand how to live together well Paul addressed some of the problems that can occur in not very persecuted groups in the first four chapters of 1 Corinthians and he shows us the way suffering forms identity in that context With discussion questions and stories from personal interviews this book offers both fascinating glimpses into the world of the first century and practical applications for Christians today Communication Yearbook 29
