Social Movements in Twentieth-century Iran Stephen C. Poulson, 2005-01-01 Stephen C Poulson investigates cycles of social protest in Iran from 1890 to the present era This work covers the following social movements the 1890 92 Tobacco Movement the 1906 09 Constitutional Revolution two post World War II movements the Tudeh Masses and the National Front the 1963 Qom Protest and the 1978 79 Iranian Revolution Poulson shows how various Iranian political actors have framed their dissent drawing on both regional and Western influenced modes of protest to achieve their ends Social Movements in Twentieth-century Iran Stephen C. Poulson, 2005 In this work Stephen C Poulson a scholar of collective action and social movements investigates cycles of social protest in Iran from 1890 to the present era He illuminates the following social movements the 1890 1892 Tobacco Movement the 1906 1909 Constitutional Revolution two post World War II movements the Tudeh Masses and the National Front the 1963 Qom Protest and the 1978 1979 Iranian Revolution These movements confronted two primary questions How should the Iranian state achieve independence in the world and what rights should individual Iranians enjoy in their political and social system Poulson examines the framing of these questions and their answers by various Iranian political actors over time revealing both continuity and change Social Movements in Egypt and Iran T. Povey, 2016-02-09 This book analyses the reform movement in Iran and the Egyptian opposition movement since the early 1990s in their historical contexts It argues that the contemporary movements seen on the streets of the regions today represent the culmination of over twenty years of mobilisation by social movements Social Movements in Iran Simin Fadaee, 2012-04-27 Despite the growing significance of social movements worldwide scholarship on the subject remains largely Western in nature with studies written primarily by Western scholars and based on the experiences of Western cultures and societies This book makes an important contribution to the study of social movements in non Western societies by examining their development in Iran With a particular focus on the recent environmental movement the author sheds new light on the implications and significance of these movements Drawing on in depth original research the case study of the environmental movement is integrated into a historical and comparative analysis Implementing the new social movement theory of Touraine and Melucci in the Iranian context the author shows that although the reform movement of Iran is unique in some aspects it is a continuation of the past social movements She places emphasis on the role of women in recent Iranian social movements exploring the significance of social movements in civil society and in instigating social change Using the case of Iran to offer a critical framework for studying social change and transformation of non European countries this book fills an important gap in the existing literature on the topic As such it will be of great interest to scholars and students of sociology political science and Middle Eastern studies Discourses of Ideology and Identity Chris Featherman, 2015-03-24 In this monograph Chris Featherman adopts a discourse analytical approach to explore the ways in which social movement ideologies and identities are discursively constructed in new and old media In the context of his argument Featherman also considers current debates surrounding the role that technologies play in democracy building and global activist networks He engages these critical issues through a case study of the 2009 Iranian presidential election protests looking at both US legacy media coverage of the protests as well as activists use of social media Through qualitative analysis of a corpus of activists Twitter tweets and Flickr uploads Featherman argues that activists social media discourses and protesters symbolic and tactical borrowing of global English contribute to micronarratives of globalization while also calling into question master narratives about Iran commonly found in mainstream Western media accounts This volume makes a timely contribution to discussions regarding the relationship between cyber rhetoric and democracy and provides new directions for researchers engaging with the influence of new media on globalized vernaculars of English

Women, Power and Politics in 21st Century Iran Dr Elaheh Rostami-Povey, Ms Tara Povey, 2013-04-28 This book examines the women s movement in Iran and its role in contesting gender relations since the 1979 revolution Looking at examples from politics law employment environment media and religion and the struggle for democracy this book demonstrates how material conditions have important social and political consequences for the lives of women in Iran and exposes the need to challenge the dominant theoretical perspectives on gender and Islam A truly fascinating insider s look at the experiences of Iranian women as academics political and civil society activists this book counters the often inaccurate and misleading stereotyping of Iranian women to present a vibrant and diverse picture of these women s lives A welcome and unique addition to the vibrant and growing literature on women Islam development democracy and feminisms

The Political Economy of Iran Farhad Gohardani, Zahra Tizro, 2019-03-07 This study entails a theoretical reading of the Iranian modern history and follows an interdisciplinary agenda at the intersection of philosophy psychoanalysis economics and politics and intends to offer a novel framework for the analysis of socio economic development in Iran in the modern era A brief review of Iranian modern history from the Constitutional Revolution to the Oil Nationalization Movement the 1979 Islamic Revolution and the recent Reformist and Green Movements demonstrates that Iranian people travelled full circle This historical experience of socio economic development revolving around the bitter question of Why are we backward and its manifestation in perpetual socio political instability and violence is the subject matter of this study Michel Foucault's conceived relation between the production of truth and production of wealth captures the essence of hypothesis offered in this study Foucault 1980 93 94 maintains that In the last analysis we must produce truth as we must produce wealth indeed we must produce truth in order to produce wealth in the first place Based on a hybrid methodology combining hermeneutics of understanding and hermeneutics of suspicion this monograph proposes that the failure to produce wealth has had particular roots in the failure in the production of truth and trust At the heart of the proposed theoretical model is the following formula the Iranian subject's confused preference structure culminates in the formation of unstable coalitions which in turn leads to institutional failure creating a chaotic social order and a turbulent history as experienced by the Iranian nation in the modern era As such the society oscillates between the chaotic states of socio political anarchy emanating from irreconcilable differences between and within social assemblages and their affiliated hybrid forms of regimes of truth in the springs of freedom and repressive states of order in the winters of discontent Each time after the experience of chaos the order is restored based on the emergence of a final arbiter Iranian leviathan as the evolved coping strategy for achieving conflict resolution This highly volatile truth cycle produces the experience of socio economic backwardness and violence The explanatory power of the theoretical framework offered in the study exploring the relation between the production of truth trust and wealth is demonstrated via providing historical examples from strong events of Iranian modern history The significant policy implications of the model are explored This monograph will appeal to researchers scholars graduate students policy makers and anyone interested in the Middle Eastern politics Iran development studies and political economy

Navigating Iran O. Seliktar, 2012-04-23 This book provides the first full account of America's relations with the Islamic Republic of Iran from Jimmy Carter's presidency to Barack Obama's It discusses all major facets of Iranian policy of interest to the United States nuclear proliferation revolutionary export and support for international terrorism efforts to undermine the Israeli Palestinian peace process and violations of human rights It compares developments in Iran to their perception in Washington providing the clearest picture available yet of the discrepancies between the complex and elusive Iranian reality and its understanding in the United States

Iranian Masculinities Sivan Balslev, 2019-03-21 This unique study spotlights the role of masculinity in Iranian history linking masculinity to social and political developments

Shia Islam and Politics Jon Armajani, 2020-05-20 This book argues that ever since Iran's Islamic Revolution in 1979 which established a Shia Islamic government in Iran that country's religious and political leaders have used Shia Islam as a crucial way of expanding Iran's objectives in the Middle East and beyond Since 1979 Iran's religious and political leaders have been concerned about Iran's security in the face of the hostility and expansionism of the United States and other western countries and the threats from powerful neighboring Sunni leaders and countries While Iran's government has attempted to align itself with Shia Muslims in various countries such as Iraq and Lebanon against American and Sunni expansionism the Iranian government has attempted to religiously nourish and politically mobilize those Shias as a matter of principle not only because of the Iranian government's desires to protect Iran from external threats. The book analyzes Shia Islam and politics in Iran, Iraq, and Lebanon, which have among the largest proportional Shia populations in the Middle East and are vibrant centers of Shia intellectual life. The book's clear and jargon-free approach makes it especially accessible for students and general readers who would like an introduction to the book's topics. Political Islam Khalad

Hroub, 2012-06-15 This volume offers a comprehensive discussion of the contemporary debates within political Islam, providing an in-depth analysis of the specific movements, countries, and regions in the Arab world and Israel. The contributors contend that the evolution of Islamic movements is contextual rather than ideological. Therefore, Islamic movements are best understood individually within their own historical, socio-political, and cultural setting. Political Islam is an essential reference for academics, researchers, and the media, as well as general readers with an interest in Islamic political debates. Contributors include Abdullah Baabood, Youcef Bouandel, Abdelwahab El Affendi, Kamal Helbawy, Roel Meijer, Ibrahim Moussawi, Tariq Ramadan, Tilde Rosmer, Murad Batal al Shishani, Sara Silvestri, and Camille Tawil. Constitutionalism in Islamic Countries: Between Upheaval and Continuity Rainer Grote, Tilmann Röder, 2012-01-11 Constitutionalism in Islamic Countries: Between Upheaval and Continuity examines the question of whether something similar to an Islamic constitutionalism has emerged out of the political and constitutional upheaval witnessed in many parts of North Africa, the Middle East, and Central and Southern Asia. In order to identify its defining features and to assess the challenges that Islamic constitutionalism poses to established concepts of constitutionalism, this book offers an integrated analysis of the complex frameworks in Islamic countries, drawing on the methods and insights of comparative constitutional law, Islamic law, international law, and legal history. European and North American experiences are used as points of reference against which the peculiar challenges and the specific answers given to those challenges in the countries surveyed can be assessed. The book also examines ways in which the key concepts of constitutionalism, including fundamental rights, separation of powers, democracy, and rule of law, may be adapted to an Islamic context, thus providing valuable new insights on the prospects for a genuine renaissance of constitutionalism in the Islamic world in the wake of the Arab spring. The Formation of Civil Society in Modern Iran

M. Mohebi, 2016-04-30 This book investigates the development of contemporary Iranian civil society and the role of public intellectuals, looking in particular at how different reformist public intellectuals used civil society to craft their vision of Iran's socio-political future. Receptions of the Ancient Near East in Popular Culture and Beyond Agnes Garcia-Ventura, Lorenzo Verderame, 2020-03-01 This book is an enthusiastic celebration of the ways in which popular culture has consumed aspects of the ancient Near East to construct new realities. The editors have brought together an impressive line-up of scholars, archaeologists, philologists, historians, and art historians to reflect on how objects, ideas, and interpretations of the ancient Near East have been remembered, constructed, reimagined, mythologized, or indeed forgotten within our shared cultural memories. The exploration of cultural memories has revealed how they inform the values, structures, and daily life of societies.

over time This is therefore not a collection of essays about the deep past but rather about the stories we tell ourselves about ourselves Identities in Crisis in Iran Ronen A. Cohen, 2015-03-18 Identities in Crisis in Iran aims at finding answers to the questions about the puzzling character of the Iranian identity The contributors acknowledge that identity especially when it is faced with fundamental tensions as in the case of Iran is a phenomenon that is constantly developing via factors involving the private self and common social components This book addresses the tension many Iranian people face that lie between the Persian culture and the Shi a religion women versus men and culture versus traditions
