Implementing European Union Education and Training Policy D. Phillips, H. Environment involves teams at six European universities each of which can only employ young researchers from Member States other than that in which it is situated The Oxford part of PRESTiGE has been concerned with the interpretation transmission and implementation of European Union education and training policy in four Member States France Germany Sweden and the United Kingdom As the leader of the Oxford team I had the good fortune to work with young researchers from Denmark Germany Greece Sweden and Portugal Their work is included here So too are contributions from Jake Murdoch a member of the Dijon team based at the Universit de Bourgogne and Professor Ant nio N voa the leader of the Lisbon team Together the papers which we have allowed to overlap to some extent so that each one can be read independently represent a genuinely international collaborative effort to understand the intentions and the effects of EU education and training policy and we hope that they will contribute to further discussion of the important issues that those with an interest in European co operation and development will wish to pursue

Public Services and the European Union Laura Nistor, 2011-09-15 Politically sensitive and economically important welfare services such as health care health insurance and education have opened up a heated debate in the EU The application of EU law to welfare services raises discontent from the part of the Member States who perceive their systems to be under threat Resisting to the application of the EU law is sometimes seen as part of protecting those values This book suggests that this resistance is largely unjustified EU law is not damaging to welfare systems but it provides adequate balancing mechanisms to ensure that all interests are protected The approach taken in analysing the impact of EU law on welfare services is to look at the negative integration process and answer the questions related to the extent to which EU law applies to welfare services and the kinds of safeguards the Court offers for these services The proportionality principle distinguishes itself as the central element in balancing national and Community interests Being part of the broader integration process negative harmonization creates legislative lacunae and therefore this book also looks at alternative solutions to the negative harmonization process namely positive and soft law

States' Gains, Labor's Losses Dorothy J. Solinger, 2018-07-05

In this explicitly comparative work Dorothy J. Solinger examines the effects of global markets on the domestic politics of major states. In the late 1970s leaders around the world faced a need both to continue productive investment and to cut labor costs to compete internationally in a changed world market. To accommodate forces seemingly beyond their control they often opted to reduce social protections and benefits that citizens had come to expect in the process recalibrating their established political economic coalitions. For countries whose governance was built on a coalition between workers and the state the political conundrum was particularly intense. States Gains Labor's Losses concentrates on three countries: China, France, and Mexico, where revolution inspired political compacts between labor and the state had to be renegotiated. In all three cases choices to forge a deepened dependence on international capital markets required the ruling parties to fire large numbers of workers and cut social benefits while attempting not to provoke widespread social unrest or even full scale revolt among their supporters. China, France, and Mexico also shared strong legacies of protectionism and state intervention in the economy so the decision of each to join a supranational economic organization—France and the EU, China and the GATT/WTO, Mexico and NAFTA—in the hope of alleviating crises of capital shortage involved submission to a new set of liberal economic rules that further compromised their sociopolitical compacts. Examining a fundamental question about the dynamics of globalization and worker protest through an innovative comparative perspective, States Gains Labor's Losses emphasizes the growing tensions and new compromises between the working class and their political leaders in the face of intense international economic pressures.

Welfare and the State: Welfare futures Nicholas Deakin, Catherine Jones, Finer, Bob Matthews, 2004

Competitiveness and Solidarity in the European Union Paolo Chiocchetti, Frédéric Allemand, 2018-12-07

Starting in the 1980s competitive pressures and the ideology of competitiveness have shaken and transformed traditional models of development, public policy, and governance in Europe. This edited book carries out a comprehensive interdisciplinary and innovative analysis of the relationship between competitiveness and solidarity in the contemporary European Union. It offers an original contribution to the scholarly debates on the current developments and challenges of welfare states, social and economic policies, and forms of governance in the European Union. Bringing together an international team of cutting edge scholars in the social sciences and the humanities, Competitiveness and Solidarity in the European Union sheds light on the conceptual richness and policy relevance of these relationships, pointing to important avenues to make the European Union more economically successful and socially fairer. This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of European Union studies and more broadly of EU Law, Public Policy, Economics, Sociology, Political Science, Geography, and Contemporary History.
