Social Skills for Nursing Practice Peter French,2025-09-17 The acquisition of professional interpersonal skills remains one of the key skills in the practice of nursing Originally published in 1983 and as a second edition in 1994 this established book maintains that social skills can be learnt and that patient care can improve by anticipating and preventing problems The book shows how nurses can develop personally and professionally by actively learning social skills in preference to their haphazard acquisition in practice Drawing on a wide body of writing research and nursing theory each chapter concludes with reflective activities and self evaluation tasks and is preceded by learning objectives

Communication Skills for Nursing Practice Catherine McCabe,Fiona Timmins,2013-11-06 Nurses need highly developed skills in order to communicate sensitively and collaboratively across a wide range of media with patients clients and colleagues from a variety of backgrounds This textbook offers a comprehensive introduction to essential communication skills with an emphasis on practical application within modern healthcare settings Supporting students and practitioners in developing a patient centred and therapeutic framework for communication it features research from a wide range of healthcare contexts and provides exercises and action plans to help nurses integrate psychological and healthcare communication theory into their day to day professional practice Renowned for its clear accessible and engaging guidance this is an indispensable textbook for all undergraduate nursing students New to this Edition A new chapter on collaborative communication New material on diversity Revised and updated throughout to provide contemporary case studies the latest literature original theories and models and skills development

Interpersonal Skills in Nursing Carolyn M. Kagan,2025-09-17 Originally published in 1985 this book locates interpersonal skills in nursing in both social psychological and nursing contexts It exposes nurses and nurse educators to different strategies for assessing teaching and evaluating interpersonal skills and examines those aspects of specialised nursing care that raise particular issues in the field of interpersonal skills The book thus combines reports of specific research studies with practical applications Aimed at nurse educators ranging from tutors and those involved in training in specific nursing specialities to psychologists the book will be of relevance to advanced students interested in interpersonal aspects of nursing and to practitioners

Tabbner's Nursing Care Gabby Koutoukidis, Rita Funnell, Karen Lawrence, Jodie Hughson, Kate Stainton, 2009 Tabbner's Nursing Care Theory and Practice is the only Australian and New Zealand textbook written specifically for the enrolled nurse student The new 5th edition of this best selling text has been fully revised and updated throughout to reflect the content of the new National Curriculum Unit 1 The evolution of nursing Unit 2 The health care environment Unit 3 Cultural diversity and nursing practice Unit 4 Promoting psychosocial health in nursing practice Unit 5 Nursing individuals throughout the lifespan Unit 6 The nursing process Unit 7 Assessing health Unit 8 Important component of nursing care Unit 9 Health promotion and nursing care of the individual Appendices Provided by publisher
