Doing History Linda S. Levstik, Keith C. Barton, 2015-01-30 Now in its fifth edition Doing History offers a unique perspective on teaching and learning history in the elementary and middle grades Through case studies of teachers and students in diverse classrooms and from diverse backgrounds it shows children engaging in authentic historical investigations often in the context of an integrated social studies curriculum The premise is that children can engage in valid forms of historical inquiry collecting and analyzing data examining the perspectives of people in the past considering multiple interpretations and creating evidence based historical accounts Grounded in contemporary sociocultural theory and research the text features vignettes in each chapter showing communities of teachers and students doing history in environments rich in literature art writing discussion and debate The authors explain how the teaching demonstrated in the vignettes reflects basic principles of contemporary learning theory Doing History emphasizes diversity of perspectives in two ways readers encounter students from a variety of backgrounds and students themselves look at history from multiple perspectives It provides clear guidance in using multiple forms of assessment to evaluate the specifically historical aspects of children's learning

Policy Uncertainty and Risk Tomas Hellström, Merle Jacob, 2011-06-28 Policy Uncertainty and Risk presents a contribution to risk analysis and risk management in public policy and management at large Special emphasis is put on the utilization of scientific knowledge by decision makers in instances where knowledge in both spheres of science and administration is highly uncertain and contested The book therefore contributes a model of science practitioner interaction in a policy area of strong current relevance The perspective is a realist constructivist one which means that risk and policy are taken to be socially predicated insofar as we can choose and change the way we define and interact with its practices It is realist insofar as we continually use such constructions to re define and re structure the world we live in Although essentially theory driven and conceptually oriented the authors develop their argument for a new interpretation of policy relevant science through a number of pressing case studies These studies include the recent BSE CJD crises in the UK the introduction of Marine Protected Areas in Sweden and the current practices surrounding risk management in corporate bodies Drawing on empirical cases and theoretical explication the book provides a number of suggestions as to how risk analysis and risk management may be more properly conceived of both from a practitioner as well as from an academic point of view

Islamic Fundamentalism Abdel Salam Sidahmed, 2018-02-07 The phenomenon of political Islam continues to dominate the political and social map of the Arab world with the increasingly open struggle between ruling elites and Islamists becoming the main source of political instability in many states This volume offers an in depth analysis of the rise of Islamic and fundamentalist movements in the Middle East and North Africa Through detailed case studies the contributors examine the various manifestations of political Islam highlighting differences across movements and evaluating the varying circumstances in which they arise They also assess the influence of such movements on the emerging post Cold War order in the region and consider questions of a general nature such as Islamic state theories and the impact of Islamicism on international relations
