Social Theory After The Holocaust Liverpool University Press Studies In European Regional Cultures:

The Routledge Handbook of Memory Activism Yifat Gutman, Jenny Wüstenberg, 2023-02-15 This Handbook is the first systematic effort to map the fast growing phenomenon of memory activism and to delineate a new field of research that lies at the intersection of memory and social movement studies From Charlottesville to Cape Town from Santiago to Sydney we have recently witnessed protesters demanding that symbols of racist or colonial pasts be dismantled and that we talk about histories that have long been silenced But such events are only the most visible instances of grassroots efforts to influence the meaning of the past in the present Made up of more than 80 chapters that encapsulate the rich diversity of scholarship and practice of memory activism by assembling different disciplinary traditions methodological approaches and empirical evidence from across the globe this Handbook establishes important questions and their theoretical implications arising from the social political and economic reality of memory activism Memory activism is multifaceted takes place in a variety of settings and has diverse outcomes but it is always crucial to understanding the constitution and transformation of our societies past and present This volume will serve as a guide and establish new analytic frameworks for scholars students policymakers journalists and activists alike European Roma Professor Eve Rosenhaft, María Sierra, 2022-03-01 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library This book designed as a resource for scholars educators activists and non specialist readers presents the results of new research on the role of Romani groups in European culture and society since the nineteenth century Its specific focus is on the ways in which Romani actors in their interactions with non Romanies have contributed to shaping Europe s public spaces Twelve chapters recount the experiences and accomplishments of individuals and families from across Europe England France Spain Germany Poland Hungary Romania and Finland and Canada All based on new research and maintaining a focus on the real lives and activities of Romani people rather than on the perspective of the majority societies these studies exemplify the creative presence of Romani people in the fields of politics economics and culture We see them as writers artists and performers political activists and resistance fighters traders and entrepreneurs circus and cinema managers and purveyors of popular science Sensitive to the ambivalent position from which Roma act the cases are linked and contextualized by a general introduction and by section introductions written by leading scholars of Romani studies with expertise in history ethnography musicology literary and discourse studies and visual culture The volume is richly illustrated including many images that have never been published before and includes an extensive bibliography guide to further reading Contributors to the volume Bego a Barrera Beatriz Carrillo de los Reyes Malte Gasche Pawe Lechowski Anna G Piotrowska Laurence Prempain Juan Pro Eve Rosenhaft Carolina Garc a Sanz Mar a Sierra and Tamara West Europe and Asia beyond East and West Gerard Delanty, 2006-10-03 This major new book tackles key questions on Europe in the context of shifting parameters of East and West The contributors sociologists anthropologists philosophers and historians show from a variety of different perspectives that the conventional equation of Europe with the West must be questioned Featuring four thematically organized chapters the book looks at a post Western world Asia in Europe encounters in history between Europe and Asia otherness in Europe and Asia Exploring new expressions of European self understanding in a way that challenges recent ideological notions of the clash of civilizations this outstanding work draws on recent scholarship that shows how Europe and Asia were mutually linked in history and in contemporary perspective It argues that as a result of current developments and the changing geopolitical context both Europe and Asia have much in common and that it is possible to speak of cosmopolitan links rather than clashes This book will be of great value to students and researchers in the fields of sociology European politics and history and cultural theory

Queer Roma Lucie Fremlova, 2021-10-04 This book offers in depth insight into the lives of queer Roma thus providing rich evidence of the heterogeneity of Roma The lived experiences of queer Roma which are very diverse regionally and otherwise pose a fundamental challenge to one dimensional negative misrepresentations of Roma as homophobic and antithetical to European and Western modernity The book platforms Romani agency and voices in an original and novel way This enables the reader to feel the individuals behind the data which detail stories of rejection by Romani families and communities and non Romani communities and unfamiliar ground breaking stories of acceptance by Romani families and communities Combining intersectionality with queer theory innovatively and applying it to Romani Studies the author supports her arguments with data illustrating how the identities of queer Roma are shaped by antigypsyism and its intersections with homophobia and transphobia Thanks to its theoretical and empirical content and its location within a book series on LGBTIQ lives that appeals to an international audience this authoritative book will appeal to a wide range of readers It will be a useful resource for libraries community and social service workers third sector Romani and LGBTIQ organisations activists and policymakers an invaluable source of information for scholars teachers and students of bigger modules in undergraduate graduate and postgraduate courses in a cross section of academic disciplines and subject areas These include but are not limited to LGBTIQ Queer Studies Women's Gender and Sexuality Studies Romani Studies Sociology Anthropology Human Geography Area Studies Cultural Studies Social Movement Studies Media Studies Psychology Health Science Social Science Political Science
