Encyclopedia of Human Geography Barney Warf, 2006-05-16 Publisher description Winnipeg Beach Dale Barbour, 2012-06-08 During the first half of the twentieth century Winnipeg Beach proudly marketed itself as the Coney Island of the West Located just north of Manitoba's bustling capital it drew 40 000 visitors a day and served as an important intersection between classes ethnic communities and perhaps most importantly between genders In Winnipeg Beach Dale Barbour takes us into the heart of this turn of the century resort area and introduces us to some of the people who worked played and lived in the resort Through photographs interviews and newspaper clippings he presents a lively history of this resort area and its surprising role in the evolution of local courtship and dating practices from the commoditization of the courting experience by the Canadian Pacific Railway s Moonlight Specials through the development of an elaborate amusement area that encouraged public dating and to its eventual demise amid the moral panic over sexual behaviour during the 1950s and 60s Revolutionary Bodies K. S. Batmanghelichi,2020-12-10 Gender and sexuality in modern Iran is frequently examined through the prism of nationalist symbols and religious discourse from the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries In this book Kristin Soraya Batmanghelichi takes a different approach by interrogating how normative ideas of women s bodies in state religious and public health discourses have resulted in the female body being deemed as immodest and taboo Through a diverse blend of sources a popular cultural women s journal a red light district cases studies of temporary marriages iconic public statues and an HIV AIDS advocacy organization in Tehran this work argues that conceptions of gender and sexuality have been mediated in public discourse and experienced and modified by women themselves over the past thirty years of the Islamic Republic Expanding upon existing philosophical theory technological research and scholarship on gender and sexuality in Iran this book focuses much needed attention on under studied marginalized communities such as widows living with HIV This work interrogates how bodily technologies are constructed discursively and socially in Iran and the values and perspectives which are incorporated in them
