Languages and Jargons Roy Porter, Peter Burke, 1996-01-30 Languages and Jargons is a contribution to the social history of language This volume is particularly concerned with the special semi private languages dialects or jargons developed by different social groups whether they are professions like lawyers doctors and teachers voluntary associations like the Masons social classes or groups on the margin of society such as beggars or Gypsies The contributors are concerned to describe these jargons as they were spoken in particular places and times to analyse their functions which range from keeping secrets from outsiders to reinforcing a sense of collective identity and to account for change over time They also study the relations between these forms of speech and their speakers and the outside world the rejection of jargon the domestication of technical terms and the transformation of former jargons into ordinary languages The volume is mainly concerned with different forms of English from the 16th to the 20th century but some contributors range further afield from Calo to Urdu Languages and Jargons will be of particular interest to students and scholars in social and cultural history linguistics and sociolinguistics and anthropology Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly

Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies

Languages of Labour John Belchem, Neville Kirk, 2021-02-27 This volume offers a multidisciplinary approach to the study of language in relation to the subject of history The British and American contributors put forward the idea that language is a broadly based means of communication with contested and consensual meanings and that such meanings must be revealed and evaluated by precise historical contextualisation of language and proper attention to established rules of historical method The essays contend that the connections between the linguistic and the social must be rethought The book aims to move beyond the unproductive fragmentation and relativism the narrow textual range and the literal and anti realist readings of the postmodern linguistic turn to offer a rigorous approach to the study of language and the subject of history
