Cancer Entangled Rikke Sand Andersen,Marie Louise Tørring,2023-04-14 Cancer Entangled explores the shifts that took place in Denmark around the millennium when health promoters set out to minimize delays in cancer diagnoses in hope of improving cancer survival The authors suggest a temporal reframing of cancer control that emphasizes the importance of focusing on how people potential patients as well as health care professionals experience and anticipate cancer before a diagnosis or a prediction has been made This argument compellingly challenges and augments anthropological work on cancer control that has privileged attention to the productive role of science and technology and to life with cancer or cancer risk By offering rich ethnographic insights into the introduction of the first cancer vaccine cancer signs and symptoms public discourses on delays social class and care seeking cancer suspicion in the clinic as well as the work on fast track referral the book convincingly situates cancer control in an ethical registrar involving attention to acceleration and time showing how cancer waiting times become an index of the state of the nation

Cancer Prevention:
The Causes and Prevention of Cancer — Volume 1 Graham A. Colditz,D.J. Hunter,2006-04-11 This Cancer Prevention book series aims to complement the research reported in the journal Cancer Causes and Control Volumes in this series will summarize the state of the science from causes to prevention of cancer The scope will be international The past 20 years has seen an explosion of epidemiologic material on the causes of cancer Examples include the growing number of studies of physical activity and colon cancer which have emerged and the numerous studies of components of diet such as alcohol and the risk of specific cancers Major shifts in resource allocation now focus on translation of this new knowledge to actual cancer prevention programs Researchers practicing clinicians and those who write and implement public health policy need this information summarized in an easily accessible format The abundance of knowledge increasing understanding of how to communicate risk of cancer to the public and greater public awareness of cancer make the coming years ones in which we will see many new attempts at widespread cancer prevention programs For example the U S Centers for Disease Control and Prevention launched a national colon cancer awareness campaign in early 1999

Inequities and Quality of Life in Argentina Juan Pablo Celemin,Guillermo Velázquez,2022-03-16 The basis of this proposal is the study of quality of life from an interdisciplinary perspective This volume presents a set of contributions from different sciences that analyse the quality of life in Argentina The contributions come from the social disciplines Geography Economics Demography History and from the field of health Nutrition Medicine Psychology as well as the applied sciences Statistics Applied Mathematics The purpose is to present various dimensions related to the well being of the population particularly in relation to poverty human development health nutrition and morbidity Although there are works from different sciences associated with the object of study they all have a geographic component based on cartography Consequently the importance of geography is highlighted as the territorial base allows for the study quality of life from a unique perspective where the map emerges as a fundamental descriptive tool Such an approach is useful to diagnose the quality of life and its uneven spatial distribution either through index or different associated variables Thus the maps are fundamental to study the territorial configuration of the quality of life at the different scales of analysis showing spatial inequalities and the areas where it is necessary to take measures to improve the population s living conditions
