and working class women groups that are often neglected in other treatments of this subject The integration of work and family women s vision of their own work and consciousness as employees and women s resistance to exploitative and limiting work are themes are also addressed throughout this book Written by and interdisciplinary group of women scholars Women and Work will be of interest to faculty researchers and advanced students in the fields of sociology organization studies psychology gender studies women s history and economics

Close Listening Charles Bernstein,1998-04-30 Close Listening brings together seventeen strikingly original essays especially written for this volume on the poetry reading the sound of poetry and the visual performance of poetry While the performance of poetry is as old as poetry itself critical attention to modern and postmodern poetry performance has been surprisingly slight This volume featuring work by critics and poets such as Marjorie Perloff Susan Stewart Johanna Drucker Dennis Tedlock and Susan Howe is the first comprehensive introduction to the ways in which twentieth century poetry has been practiced as a performance art From the performance styles of individual poets and types of poetry to the relation of sound to meaning from historical and social approaches to poetry readings to new imaginations of prosody the entries gathered here investigate a compelling range of topics for anyone interested in poetry Taken together these essays encourage new forms of close listenings not only to the printed text of poems but also to tapes performances and other expressions of the sounded and visualized word The time is right for such a volume with readings spoken word events and the Web gaining an increasing audience for poetry Close Listening opens a number of new avenues for the critical discussion of the sound and performance of poetry
