Society And Peoples:

Young People as Agents of Sustainable Society Päivi Honkatukia, Tiina Rättilä, 2023-06-16 This book analyses young people's societal participation as a central dimension of their well being and as vitally important to secure the sustainable future of humankind and the whole eco social system It develops a theoretical framework for analysing youth participation holistically embedded in its everyday context and as a relational phenomenon underpinned by universal human needs It introduces innovative methodological approaches to study youth engagements in society This book will appeal to scholars and students of youth studies sociology sustainable development youth participation and education It also offers new knowledge and theoretical readings for policy experts on youth and sustainable development as well as for NGOs working with youth The Open Access version of this book available at http www taylorfrancis com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Young People's Understanding of Society (Routledge Revivals) Adrian Furnham, 2015-12-22 First published in 1991 this book represents the first wide ranging review of young people's understanding of the social world and the functioning of society Taking a social cognitive view of adolescence it focuses on the processes by which young people learn to understand other people s thoughts emotions intentions and behaviour Concentrating on the social world of politics economics work gender and religion the authors cover such issues as politics and government work and unemployment law and legislative matters religion marriage and the family social class and racial and ethnic differences This work will be of interest to students of sociology and psychology People in Society Helen Grant, Stephen Sinclair, 2003 This extensive Activity and Assessment File supports the Modern Studies Student's Book Together they provide complete coverage of Modern Studies at S1 and S2 and match the new 5 14 guidelines for this subject Older People in a Digitalized Society Päivi Rasi-Heikkinen, 2022-10-14 With many older people lacking adequate digital competences to support their full participation in today s digitalized society Older People in a Digitalized Society asks how is the marginalisation of older people in digital society socially constructed How can we promote older people s digital inclusion and agency A Society Fit for Human Beings Elie Maynard Adams, 1997-10-31 Argues for a humanistic cultural reformation to counter our materialistic values and science dominated intellectual life and shows how this would affect our lives and transform our society A Society Fit for Human Beings contends that there is a profound incoherence in the foundations of modern Western civilization and that we are on a self destructive course With the quest for wealth and power our dominant concern we find ourselves with a flourishing economy and a supreme military force based on science and technology but with our moral civic and religious culture undermined by our way of comprehending the world Our human identity is problematic the wells of meaning that nourish the human spirit are polluted or drying up and the social order is in disarray This situation E M Adams argues requires nothing less than a historic cultural revolution based on a shift in priorities from wealth and power to humanistic values those grounded in selfhood and lived experience that are essential for human growth meaningful lives and a healthy society Such a shift in our governing values would require a restructuring of our intellectual vision of humankind and the world in terms of humanistic categories This book shows the import of such a humanistic cultural revolution for our human identity morality the social order and our major institutions including the family and community education the economy the government the military and religion It outlines how we can work toward such a cultural revolution and develop a constructive postmodern civilization with a society fit for human beings Rules of the People's Family Life Assurance and Sick Benefit Society,1863

Civil Society Organizations' Interventions Among Indigenous People Mariadedinda Saliling Sicam Pobre, 2025-02-21 The book was written to assess civil society organizations and interventions This is the experience of the Indigenous People in Carmen Cotabato particularly the Erumanen ne Menuvu who engage to form an organization This study was conducted from January to November 2013 There are factors in the study that involve the implementing strategy of the two civil society organizations Erumanen Manuvu Parents Organization EMPO and Manuvu Arumanen Pasakadday Association MAPA in the two service areas namely Barangay Aroman and Barangay Liliongan in Carmen Cotabato together with the nature of the participation of the beneficiaries during the implantation phase The result of the study revealed that the two CSOs had the same implementing strategy but they deferred only in the recruitment of the respective beneficiaries They were small community based organizations where the beneficiaries performed multiple roles in the program implementation The ^ATumbleweed Society Allison J. Pugh, 2015-04-01 This book examines how we navigate questions of commitment and flexibility at work and at home in a world where insecurity has become the norm How do people today especially parents think and talk about what we owe each other on the job and in intimate relationships with partners children and others when so much is perpetually up in the air Society Without People Christopher Pieper, Justin Nelson, 2025-06-16 Society Without People is the first major scholarly analysis of the profound social and cultural effects of emerging technologies such as generative AI and the Metaverse Using an approachable style and compelling scenarios Pieper and Nelson examine the potential ways these technologies will shape identity institutions relationships communities power and personhood itself in the near future Introducing the theory of Gamism the authors suggest that the logic of games could serve as the new ideology governing this strange exciting world One question underlies each chapter how can humans flourish in the midst of such rapid and deep changes It is a must read for anyone concerned about the future of society and Food, People and Society Lynn J. Frewer, Einar Risvik, Hendrik Schifferstein, 2001-08-14 This book edited technology and authored by a group of scientists experienced in European cross cultural and interdisciplinary research in the field of consumer food perceptions sensory evaluation product image and risk research delivers a unique insight into decision making and food consumption of the European consumer The volume is essential reading for those involved in product development market research and consumer science in food and agro industries and academic research It brings together experts from different disciplines in order to address fundamental issues to do with predicting food choice consumer behavior and societal trust into quality and safety regulatory systems. The importance of the social and psychological context and the cross cultural differences and how they influence food choice are also covered in great detail Civil Society in China Runya Qiaoan, 2021-09-30 Chinese civil society groups have achieved iconic policy advocacy successes in the areas of environmental protection women s rights poverty alleviation and public health This book examines why some groups are successful in policy advocacy within the authoritarian context while others fail A mechanism of cultural resonance is introduced as an innovative theoretical framework to systematically compare interactions between Chinese civil society and the government in different movements It is argued that civil society advocacy results depend largely on whether advocators can achieve cultural resonance with policymakers and the mainstream public through their social performances The effective performance is the one in which advocators employ symbols embraced by the audience policymakers and the public in their actions and framings While many studies have tried to explain the phenomena of successful policy advocacy in China through institutional or organizational factors this book not only contains extensive empirical data based on field research but takes a cultural sociological turn to identify the meaning making process behind advocacy actions Civil Society in China will appeal to students and scholars of sociology political science social work and Chinese and Asian studies more broadly Suffering Brian Rock, 1997 This book is a collection of papers on the effects of public violence on children in South Africa Section 1 of this report is an overview of the findings of South Africa's Goldstone Commission of Inquiry into the Effects of Public Violence on Children Section 2 concentrates on assessing problems and intervening to relieve them The following essays are included 1 Introduction Brian Rock 2 Overview Norman Duncan and Brian Rock 3 Children and Violence Quantifying the Damage Norman Duncan and Brian Rock 4 Going beyond the Statistics Norman Duncan and Brian Rock 5 Survey of Organizations Providing Services to Children Norman Duncan and Brian Rock 6 Inquiry Recommendations Norman Duncan and Brian Rock 7 Advisory Panel Recommendations 8 Assessing the Impact of Violence on Children Peter Newell 9 Being Human vs Having Human Rights Cosmas Desmond 10 Post traumatic Stress in Children Presentation and Intervention Guidelines Gill Eagle and Catherine Michelson 11 Working with Traumatized Children A Community Project Sheila Miller and 12 The Survivors of Apartheid and Political Violence in KwaZulu Natal Anne McKay An appendix lists resource contacts Each chapter contains references and there is a reference list for each section Contains 28 tables SLD Social Robotics Shuzhi Sam Ge, Oussama Khatib, John-John Cabibihan, Reid Simmons, Mary Anne Williams, 2012-11-04 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Social Robotics ICSR 2012 held in Chengdu China in October 2012 The 66 revised full papers were carefully reviewed and selected from numerous submissions The papers are organized in topical sections on affective and cognitive sciences for socially interactive robots situated interaction and embodiment robots to assist the elderly and persons with disabilities social acceptance of robots and their impact to the society artificial
