Society Culture And Change In The Middle East:

Society, Culture, and Change in the Middle East Raphael Patai, 1969 Society, Culture, and Cultural Change in the Middle East Raphael Patai, 1971 Society, Law, and Culture in the Middle East Dror Ze'evi, Ehud R. Toledano, 2015-10-29

Society Law and Culture in the Middle East Modernities in the Making is an edited volume that seeks to deepen and broaden our understanding of various forms of change in Middle Eastern and North African societies during the Ottoman period. It offers an in-depth analysis of reforms and gradual change in the longue dur e challenging the current discourse on the relationship between society culture and law. The focus of the discussion shifts from an external to an internal perspective as agency transitions from the West to local actors in the region. Highlighting the ongoing interaction between internal processes and external stimuli and using primary sources in Arabic and Ottoman Turkish the authors and editors bring out the variety of modernities that shaped south eastern Mediterranean history. The first part of the volume interrogates the urban elite household the main social political and economic unit of networking in Ottoman societies. The second part addresses the complex relationship between law and culture looking at how the legal system conceptually and practically undergirded the socio cultural aspects of life in the Middle East.

Society Law and Culture in the Middle East consists of eleven chapters written by well established and younger scholars working in the field of Middle East and Islamic Studies. The editors Dror Ze'evi and Ehud R. Toledano are both leading historians who have published extensively on Middle Eastern societies in the Ottoman and post Ottoman periods.

Society, Culture and Change in the Middle East Raphael Patai, 1962 Sociology of the Middle East Nieuwenhuijze, 2022-09-12 Golden River to Golden Road Raphael Patai, 1967 Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, 1992

During the last two decades the number of anthropological studies on the Middle East has increased exponentially. This partially annotated bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of studies written in English French and German and covers the period from 1965 to 1987.

Cross-cultural Perspectives on Families, Work, and Change Katja Boh, Giovanni B. Sgritta, Marvin B. Sussman, 1989

An intriguing study on families and their changing roles. Cross Cultural Perspectives on Families Work and Change provides fresh viewpoints on factors that have an impact on family life and relationships. This thematic volume with chapters from scholars in Italy Australia Israel Jordan West Germany Yugoslavia Norway and Finland is truly international and covers a variety of substantive concerns. Among these is the concern for new familial models which will meld both the individual and the whole into a viable family entity capable of providing for the wishes needs and aspirations of the whole and individual members of a family. Discussing various concepts relating to family structure in lieu of the recent shift toward gender equity and the greater acceptance of varied forms of families and lifestyles this book carefully links the most supportive and nurturing components of modern society with tried and true components of traditional cultures and systems. The chapters take a conceptual approach focusing on applications and future needs policies and problems surrounding the family.

Cross Cultural Perspectives on Families Work and Change

represents the increasing shift of mothers to professionals with chapters on increasing female employment and its effect on family life The much needed search for explanations of family and society change and for new family models is a common thread throughout the book In reading this insightful work family and marriage counselors students and academicians in family studies researchers social workers and psychologists will see new ways of perceiving families in their critical roles over generations of time

Religions and Societies, Asia and the Middle East Carlo Caldarola,1982 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series

War, Institutions, and Social Change in the Middle East Steven Heydemann,2000-12-01 Few areas of the world have been as profoundly shaped by war as the Middle East in the twentieth century Despite the prominence of war making in this region there has been surprisingly little research investigating the effects of war as a social and political process in the Middle East To fill this gap War Institutions and Social Change in the Middle East brings together an international and interdisciplinary group of scholars who explore the role of war preparation and war making on the formation and transformation of states and societies in the contemporary Middle East Their findings pose significant challenges to widely accepted assumptions and present new theoretical starting points for the study of war and the state in the contemporary developing world Heydemann s collaborators include political scientists historians anthropologists and sociologists from the Middle East Europe and the United States Their essays are both theoretically sophisticated and empirically rich covering topics such as the effects of World War II on state market relations in Syria and Egypt the role of war in the rise of the Palestine Liberation Organization the political economy of Lebanese militias and the effects of the 1967 war on state and social institutions in Israel The volume originated as a research planning project of the Joint Committee on the Near and Middle East of the Social Science Research Council

Politics of Change in Middle East and North Africa since Arab Spring Md. Muddassir Quamar,2022-12-29 A decade since the eruption of Arab Spring protests in the Middle East and North Africa the region continues to confront the primary causes of the popular disenchantment including economic deprivation bad governance corruption and limited avenues for political expression Democratisation the buzzword in 2011 has given way to debates around conflict management and resolution Simultaneously there are mounting economic challenges throughout the region that have been aggravated by the COVID 19 pandemic But there are some silver linings such as a focus on reforms greater scrutiny against corruption demand for better governance and awareness regarding women empowerment and rights of minorities The volume Politics of Change in the Middle East and North Africa since Arab Spring A Lost Decade commemorates the ten years of the eruption of Arab Spring protests It captures some of the prevailing political economic strategic and social issues in MENA through thematic or country specific essays that explore the ongoing transformations and underline how despite the hopelessness the MENA societies have made progress on various fronts Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan

Political Culture and Conflict Resolution in the Arab Middle East Benjamin MacQueen, 2009 Political Culture and Conflict Resolution in the Arab Middle East develops a method for examining the explanatory capacity of political culture in relation to the issues of civil war and conflict resolution in Lebanon and Algeria How perception shaped by values and assumptions affects political behaviour presents scholars with potentially valuable but also dangerous possibilities Namely seeking to explore the explanatory capacity of the nebulous concept of political culture can prospectively lead to the cul de sacs of essentialism or relativism In an attempt to engage with the concept of political culture this book develops a method for examining the explanatory capacity of political culture in relation to the issues of civil war and conflict resolution in Lebanon and Algeria Applying strict limits on the implementation of political culture in an explanatory capacity namely its role as a secondary relational and comparative concept this book demonstrates how political culture operates to shape the form and affect the legitimacy of conflict resolution processes This is applied to two peace agreements Lebanon's Taef Agreement and Algeria's Civil Concord Here the importance of contextuality is emphasised in developing a space where political culture can provide explanatory capacity whilst remaining connected to macro theoretical concepts
