

SOCIOLOGICAL PARADIGMS

Sociological paradigms are the broad schools of thought in sociology. The three key sociological paradigms are functionalism, conflict theory, and symbolic interactionism.

1. FUNCTIONALISM

Argues that social stability is a prerequisite for a healthy and strong society. Social institutions contribute towards social stability. Abrupt social change imperils social order.

2. CONFLICT THEORY

Argues that society is built upon enduring inequality on the basis of social class, gender, race etc. Structural social change is required to create an egalitarian society.

3. SYMBOLIC INTERACTIONISM

Argues that we construct society through a range of symbols (e.g., words, gestures) and social interactions. People make up their roles as they interact.

Sociological Theories of Today Pitirim Aleksandrovich Sorokin, 1979      Sociological Theories of Today Pitirim Aleksandrovich Sorokin, 1966      Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1980      Renewal Colbert Rhodes, 2017-07-11 Offering a deep look into the moral uncertainty in the contemporary social sciences and American society this book explores an in depth solution This solution as articulated by Pitirim A Sorokin in the 20th century is the theory of Integralism a perspective dating back to Plato Aristotle and Aquinas Sorokin initially applied Integralism by locating and analyzing three dominant super socio cultural systems over 2500 years of Graeco Roman and Western history Each super system was unified by a central philosophical principle based either on materialism the senses or the rational or the supersensory super rational A super system declines when it reaches the limits of its potential to achieve its true reality and value to be replaced by another super system Sorokin described a trendless rotation of the three super socio cultural systems The current dominant super socio cultural system in the West is a materialist version emphasizing science and technology with little thought given to supersensory super rational reality Sorokin asserted contemporary materialist culture was in a state of collapse due to the breakup of its moral values As a consequence he saw a struggle for power occurring between egoistic individuals and groups often resulting in revolutions wars and inter human strife In response to the one sided materialist view of reality the goal of Integralism is to unify all three forms of reality into an integral culture that harmoniously balances materialist and supersensory super rational orientations A solution to the contemporary moral confusion Sorokin argued can be found in the application of supra conscious intuition that would enable a human to know what is eternal in the ordinary and reach the transcendent an experience not accessible to the senses or the rational intellect alone The supra conscious is the source for reaching the supreme moral value creative unselfish altruism which can be shared by all cultures to produce peace and harmony in the world      Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1980-04
