Instead, they provide full coverage of those topics that instructors emphasize the most in a one semester or one term introductory sociology course. And like Henslin's other texts, it features the author's familiar down to earth approach and personal writing style that highlight the sociology of everyday life. With wit, personal reflection, and illuminating examples, Henslin shares with readers a passion for sociology unmatched by any other introductory text. The Politics of Authenticating Richard Ekins, Robert Porter, 2023-10-03. The Politics of Authenticating: Revisiting New Orleans Jazz sets forth an entirely new approach to the study of authenticity based not upon a search for finding the true meaning of the concept or unmasking its claims. Rather, it details a grounded theory of authenticating as a basic socio-political process important in understanding the origins, development, and consequences of competing knowledge claims in diverse areas of human experience and activity over time and place. The book is part jazz historiography, part autoethnography, and part memoir. It details Richard Ekins' revisiting of the quest for authenticity in the social worlds of international New Orleans revivalist jazz from the early 1960s onwards from his standpoint as a social constructionist, social scientist, and cultural theorist. The book grew out of a series of long, detailed conversations between Ekins and his interlocutor Robert Porter and captures the energy and dynamism of these exchanges in the writing of the text, providing what the authors call a riff methodology that might be drawn on by other scholars concerned to write books that revisit aspects of their personal and professional lives.

A Critical Theory Of Public Life Ben Agger, 2013-10-31. This text collects together Ben Agger's essays on the origins, significance, and applications of critical theory, a perspective associated with the Frankfurt School. The essays address a variety of topics, including the viability of Marxist theory and new social movements.
