Like Love: Essays and Conversations Maggie Nelson, 2024-04-02 One of the Globe and Mail's most anticipated books of 2024 A career spanning collection of inspiring revelrous essays about art and artists Like Love is a momentous raucous collection of essays drawn from twenty years of Maggie Nelson's brilliant work These profiles reviews remembrances tributes and critical essays as well as several conversations with friends and idols bring to life Nelson's passion for dialogue and dissent The range of subjects is wide from Prince to Carolee Schneemann to Matthew Barney to Lhasa de Sela to Kara Walker but certain themes recur intergenerational exchange love and friendship feminist and queer issues especially as they shift over time subversion transgression and perversity the roles of the critic and of language in relation to visual and performance arts forces that feed or impede certain bodies and creators and the fruits and follies of a life spent devoted to making Arranged chronologically Like Love shows the writing thinking feeling reading looking and conversing that occupied Nelson while writing iconic books such as Bluets and The Argonauts As such it is a portrait of a time an anarchic party rich with wild guests a window into

Nelson's own development and a testament to the profound sustenance offered by art and artists The Ladies' Repository, 1864 The idea of this women's magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey's Lady's Book and Snowden's Lady's Companion Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr By 1851 each issue published a piece of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000 Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own Cf American periodicals 1741 1900 Herald of Gospel Liberty Elias Smith, 1912 Gothic Metaphysics Jodey Castricano, 2021-11-15 We live in the time of the Anthropocene which calls for a paradigm shift in our relation to this planet One of the themes of this book is to call attention to the shift This book is a challenge to Literary Gothic and Cultural Studies The case for rethinking approaches to gothic fiction is built on an extended critique of Freudian assumptions and antinomies of the occult associated with mechanism materialism and classical physics a critique informed by Jung and an engaging re evaluation of mystical animist and alchemical modes of thought linked to quantum physics new materialism along with curiously but effectively Derridean deconstruction and cryptonymy Readers will benefit from the depth and breadth of the research in this book that draws upon philosophical anthropological psychoanalytic and scientific thought to engage with a literary genre in a way that changes how we think about Gothic Studies Slavery, Philosophy, and American Literature, 1830-1860 Maurice S. Lee, 2005-08-18 Examining the literature of slavery and race before the Civil War Maurice Lee in this 2005 book demonstrates how the slavery crisis became a crisis of philosophy that exposed the breakdown of national consensus and the limits of rational authority Poe Stowe Douglass Melville and Emerson were among the antebellum authors who tried and failed to find rational solutions to the slavery conflict Unable to mediate the slavery controversy as the nation moved toward war their writings form an uneasy transition between the confident rationalism of the American Enlightenment and the more skeptical thought of the pragmatists Lee draws on antebellum moral philosophy political theory and metaphysics bringing a different perspective to the literature of slavery one that synthesizes cultural studies and intellectual history to argue that romantic sentimental and black Atlantic writers all struggled with modernity when facing the slavery crisis
