Speaking Of God Evangelism As Initial Spiritual Guidance:

Speaking of God Ben Campbell Johnson, 1991-01-01 Many mainline churches today have members both laity and clergy who find it a problem to speak face to face about God This creative book offers a theological foundation practical suggestions and a positive model for sharing faith Ben Campbell Johnson combines evangelism and spiritual guidance in order to provide a fresh image and a new style of faith sharing He gives a model of spiritual direction that offers a positive attractive way of doing face to face evangelical work Secularism and the Pursuit of Transcendence, Volume I Stanley E. Porter, Wendy J. Porter, 2025-02-20 We live in a secular age or so we have been told Nevertheless the Christian church strongly believes that we still experience and in fact are surrounded by acts of transcendence encounters with God that often defy imagination and explanation And yet we do try to explain such phenomena whether theologically experientially biblically historically philosophically literarily or even or especially artistically These two volumes are more than just papers from a major conference on secularism and the pursuit of transcendence held at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario They contain genuine attempts by people deeply engaged with their secular surroundings to explain what we mean by transcendence Transcendence has been a longstanding topic among the best thinkers of this and previous ages and the same is true for these volumes which include contributions by Charles Taylor Robert Wuthnow Merold Westphal and Christina Gschwandtner but also by a wide range of others who address the question from divergent vantage points The responses vary as much as the orientations of those involved in the pursuit of defining not only what it means to live in our secular age but to be involved in the pursuit of transcendence or even to perceive the Transcendent s pursuit of us Beginning Well Gordon T. Smith, 2001-08-17 Gordon T Smith contends that a chief cause of spiritual immaturity in the evangelical church is an inadequate theology of conversion Surveying Scripture spiritual autobiographies and a broad range of theologies of conversion he seeks to foster in the Christian community a dynamic language of conversion that leads to spiritual transformation and mature Christian living To Pray God's Will Ben Campbell Johnson, 1987-01-01 Looking upon Christian life as a spiritual journey Ben Campbell Johnson discusses the importance of prayer for those who want to continue their progress toward God He shows that the life of prayer involves all the human faculties reason imagination emotion and will As ways of deepening knowledge and love of God he considers meditation and contemplation and gives helpful suggestions for their practice He shows how a deeper awareness of God has social implications and leads to a vision of a transformed world Johnson discusses his own need for a guide on the spiritual journey illustrating how such a companion can help others He emphasizes the importance of keeping a journal and gives practical help in getting started with it Quest for Spiritual Community Angela H. Reed, 2011-04-25 Many churches recognize the importance of the genuine spiritual hunger in our time and are attempting to bridge the gulf between traditional religious institutions and the contemporary spiritual quest by revitalizing and retooling ancient spiritual practices This book suggests that it is possible to relish the spiritual quest while honoring tradition and theological inquiry through practices such as spiritual guidance It presents a sociological analysis of contemporary spirituality case studies of congregations with spiritual guidance ministries and reflection on historical practices and Protestant theological roots to explore the strengths and pitfalls of nurturing the contemporary spiritual quest in the average congregation The resulting vision for congregation based spiritual guidance incorporates practices that attend to person community and mission Liberating Evangelism Stephen K.

Pickard,1999-06-01 Has the church abdicated its responsibility for and privilege of spreading the gospel Has this baptismal birthright been forgotten or denied out of ignorance poor example or even misinformation Stephen Pickard argues that the church is called to be a community of the evangel and thus a community that seeks to embody the glad tidings of God in all of its life He addresses two issues the relationship of evangelism to systematic theology and the relationship of evangelism to the church In the case of the former he calls for a recovery of the complementary nature of theology and evangelism the theory and practice of the gospel discussing what this might involve and how it may benefit the church s evangelistic task This evangelistic task is then developed further in terms of the dynamics of communication Regarding evangelism and its relation to the church Pickard contends that the locus for evangelism has to be the Christian community its life of worship and discipleship in the world But the church must be reconceived missiologically in terms of the Great Commission and as a community for the praise of God The Oxford Handbook of Methodist Studies William J. Abraham,James E.

Kirby,2009-09-25 With the decision to provide of a scholarly edition of the Works of John Wesley in the 1950s Methodist Studies emerged as a fresh academic venture Building on the foundation laid by Frank Baker Albert Outler and other pioneers of the discipline this handbook provides an overview of the best current scholarship in the field The forty two included essays are representative of the voices of a new generation of international scholars summarising and expanding on topical research and considering where their work may lead Methodist Studies in the future Thematically ordered the handbook provides new insights into the founders history structures and theology of Methodism and into ongoing developments in the practice and experience of the contemporary movement Key themes explored include worship forms mission ecumenism and engagement with contemporary ethical and political debate To Will God's Will Ben Campbell

Johnson,1987-01-01 Popular author Ben Campbell Johnson views Christian life as a journey toward God and himself as one of the travelers He describes how the spiritual life develops in relation to the events perceptions and interpretations of every day Enriched by stories as well as biblical and personal examples this clearly written book can guide Christians on their most important journey Spiritual Mentoring Keith R. Anderson,Randy D. Reese,1999-05-20 Drawing on the writings of

Augustine John of the Cross Teresa of Avila and others Keith R Anderson and Randy D Reese show that the age old practice of Christian mentoring is meant to facilitate our growth throughout life They provide motivation principles and plans for starting and continuing mentoring relationships The Continuing Conversion of the Church Darrell L. Guder,2000-03-20

Western society is now a very different very difficult mission field In such a situation the mission of evangelism cannot succeed with an attitude of business as usual This volume builds a theology of evangelism that has its focus on the church itself Darrell Guder shows that the church's missionary calling requires that the theology and practice of evangelism be fundamentally rethought and redirected focused on the continuing evangelization of the church so that it can carry out its witness faithfully in today's world In Part 1 Guder explores how under the influence of reductionism and individualism the church has historically moved away from a biblical theology of evangelism Part 2 presents contemporary challenges to the church's evangelical ministry especially those challenges that illustrate the church's need for continuing conversion Part 3 discusses what a truly missional theology would mean for the church including sweeping changes in its institutional structures and practices Written for teachers church leaders and students of evangelism this volume is vital reading for everyone engaged in mission work
