The Cambridge Guide to American Theatre Don B. Wilmeth, 2007-09-13 New and updated encyclopedic guide to American theatre from its earliest history to the present Twenty-First Century American Playwrights Christopher Bigsby, 2018 Introduces nine exciting and talented playwrights who have emerged in twenty first century America exploring issues of race gender and society Contemporary African American Female Playwrights Dana A. Williams, 1998-06-30 Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun 1959 was a major dramatic success and brought to the world's attention the potential talent of African American women playwrights But in spite of Hansberry's landmark contribution both the theater and the literary world have often failed to include contemporary African American female playwrights within the circle of production publication and criticism In African American drama anthologies female playwrights are seldom given the degree of attention that is accorded their male counterparts And because of space constraints anthologies of works by women playwrights are forced to exclude numerous female dramatists including African Americans Meanwhile some scholars have argued that the works of African American female playwrights are seldom produced in the mainstream theater because these plays frequently challenge the views of white America But as A Raisin in the Sun demonstrates plays by African American women dramatists can have a powerful message and are worthy of attention A comprehensive research tool this annotated bibliography sheds light on the often neglected works of contemporary African American female playwrights Included within its scope are those dramatists who have had at least one work published since 1959 the year of Hansberry's monumental achievement The first section provides a listing of anthologies that include one or more plays written by an African American female dramatist The second gives entries for reference works and for scholarly and critical studies of the dramatists and their plays The third presents a listing of published plays by individual dramatists along with a summary of each drama the works of each playwright that are related to drama and secondary sources that treat the dramatists and their plays Entries are accompanied by concise but informative annotations and the volume closes with a list of periodicals that frequently publish criticism of African American female playwrights a section of brief biographical sketches of the dramatists and extensive indexes Holocaust Drama Gene A. Plunka, 2009-04-02 The Holocaust the systematic attempted destruction of European Jewry and other threats to the Third Reich from 1933 to 1945 has been portrayed in fiction film memoirs and poetry Gene Plunka's study will add to this chronicle with an examination of the theatre of the Holocaust Including thorough critical analyses of more than thirty plays this book explores the seminal twentieth century Holocaust dramas from the United States Europe and Israel Biographical information about the playwrights production histories of the plays and pertinent historical information are provided placing the plays in their historical and cultural contexts Signs of Life Joan M. Schenkar, 2012-01-01 Joan Schenkar widely regarded as America's most original female contemporary playwright is the author of numerous experimental plays which she refers to as comedies of menace Bristling with wit and intelligence the collection features Signs of Life Cabin Fever The Universal Wolf Burning Desires The Last of Hitler and Fulfilling Koch's Postulate These plays explore issues of feminism and gender politics history and memory sexuality and violence bringing to life such figures as Gertrude Stein and Marlene Dietrich Hitler and Eva Braun P T Barnum and Henry and Alice James Claude Levi Strauss and Roland Barthes Schenkar's charged language and evocative stage directions invite the reader to become both performer and audience and the experience is enhanced both by richly evocative stage directions and illustrations from productions of the plays Initially written to be read like novels as well as staged the plays provide a unique theatrical experience an experience that can only be accessed by laughter Encyclopedia of American Drama Jackson R. Bryer, Mary C. Hartig, 2015-04-22 Provides a comprehensive guide to American dramatic literature from its origins in the early days of the nation to American classics such as Arthur Miller's Death of a Salesman and Thornton Wilder's Our Town to the groundbreaking works of today's best writers The Plays of Beth Henley Gene A. Plunka, 2014-11-18 Beth Henley's twelve complete plays three of which have been turned into films have achieved worldwide production At age 29 she produced her first full length drama Crimes of the Heart which won a Pulitzer Prize and garnered three Academy Award nominations as a film Her Mississippi upbringing and her penchant for the eccentricities of southern culture however have caused critics to categorize her writing as a kind of southern gothic folklore inspired by feminist ideology This book the first critical study of Henley's complete plays attempts to dispel the common stereotypes that associate Henley's work with regional drama and sociological treatises It argues instead that Henley can best be perceived as a dramatist who delineates an existential despair manifested in various forms of what Freud calls the modern neurosis The book maintains that Henley's plays must be understood as universal statements about the angst of modern civilization and Henley's characters are assessed in light of Freud's proposition that cultural restrictions create neurotic individuals The introduction provides a brief account of Henley's childhood and career Early chapters summarize the theory of the modern angoisse espoused in Freud's Civilization and Its Discontents while later chapters relate this theory to thematic and stylistic elements of Henley's most popular play Crimes of the Heart as well as Am I Blue The Wake of Jamie Foster The Miss Firecracker Contest The Debutante Ball The Lucky Spot Abundance Signature Control Freaks Revelers L Play and Impossible Marriage Understanding Tony Kushner James Fisher, 2008 He concludes with a reading of the teleplay of Angels in America and the screenplays for Munich and the forthcoming film Lincoln both directed by Steven Spielberg exploring how Kushner moves his themes from stage to screen The Stage Life of Props Andrew Sofer, 2003-06-17 Fresh and provocative readings of familiar stage objects provide new ways of understanding theater dramatic literature and culture
