

For My Grandmother

*I have memories that make me smile,
Of a young child who longed to be,
By the side of a Grandmother...so adored,
The child that I speak of was me.*

*You were the Grandmother filled with love,
Who had such a wonderful way,
And time spent with you was a special gift,
Each day was a magical day!*

*I can recall all the things you did,
And the gentleness of your touch.
You had a talent for letting me know,
That you loved me...ever so much!*

*And the impact you had upon my life,
Continues to this day still.
I loved you then, I love you now,
And always, yes, always...I will!*

Here are true life stories of ordinary men, women, and children who no longer fear death or grieve for deceased loved ones. Why? Because they know the human spirit survives death and lives on. But how do they know this with such certainty? The proof lies in what they have seen with their own eyes and felt with their own hearts. Each was present when a grandmother, best friend, spouse, or child appeared to them in a luminous visitation to ease their grief and to show them that no one had really died. They were graced to witness angels or Jesus or other spiritual beings who came to announce the well-being of their recently passed dear ones. Here, told in simple but emotionally rich words, are seventy-eight unforgettable tales of grief allayed and solace attained. Housewives, mechanics, and mothers, sons and daughters, truck drivers and nurses, young and old, all attest to the survival of the spirit after death. What is remarkable is that many of them had no previous mystical experiences or even beliefs that such occurrences were possible. Read their miraculous stories and you'll begin to understand why Nick Bunick, subject of The Messengers, assures us that with every transition of the soul, grief dissolves and it is only death that dies.
