Mothers and Others Sarah Blaffer Hrdy, 2011-04-15 Sarah Hrdy argues that if human babies were to survive in a world of scarce resources they would need to be cared for not only by their mothers but also by siblings aunts fathers friends and with any luck grandmothers Out of this complicated and contingent form of childrearing says Hrdy came the human capacity for understanding others Working Mother ,1979-07 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives

Bitter Sweet Surviving the Struggle Within describes my efforts to face the fears and pain of love and self love sickness and health death and spirituality and forgiveness It also expresses my hope to find the answers to life s questions First I had to acknowledge self because without self acknowledgement every obstacle will magnify In understanding what makes me tick and how my past could hold me back I learned to love myself which allowed me to find true love Bitter poisons that once flowed through my veins are now replaced with the sweet taste of honey My agonies frustrations and pain took me on one excursion after another The only true journey toward growth and fulfillment is tunneling through the many avenues of self I had to go within before I could move forward I had to master this expedition No matter what I seek everything I need is already inside me Am I important enough to myself to go within and search for what I want and need It is what I choose to accept about my life that will make it Bitter or Sweet And I realize that I am not alone Everyone experiences pain and discord I hope my words reach others so they too can rejoice I have learned to celebrate the child within to overcome past hurts and all the old Bitter Sweet experiences This chronicles where I have been where I am today and what I have accomplished
