Special Women The Experience Of Women:

Women's Sexual Experience Martha Kirkpatrick, 2012-12-06 This book like its companion volume Women's Sexual Development is a potpourri of ideas not campaign literature to promote a particular point of view The editor agrees with some of her authors and strongly disagrees with others The facts are few the questions many The intent of both books is to evoke questions delay convictions invite controversy and plead for opening minds The examination and explanation of women's sexual experience has long been the province of men The is and the oughts have been hopelessly confused by the investigators or exhorters biases and limited experience as well as by the use of the male sexual experience as the model for all human sexual experience Women at long last are talking not only to each other in personal journals and letters but also in the more formal worlds of academic and scientific publications The papers in this book come from many sources Some are academic some are experiential journalistic or personal Several emphasize the lack of adequate research and data but address an issue that is just appearing on the surface of contemporary controversy and concern Many topics and sources of information are missing

Black Women's Experiences of Criminal Justice Ruth Chigwada-Bailey, 2003 A personal discourse on the multiple disadvantages of people who are black women and from the margins of society

Experiences of Single African-American Women Professors Eletra S. Gilchrist, 2013-03-08 Experiences of Single African American Women Professors With this Ph D I Thee Wed edited by Eletra S Gilchrist explores the unique lived experiences of single African American women professors Gilchrist's contributors are comprised of never before married and doctorate degree holding African American women professors The authors and research participants speak candidly about their experiences exploring a myriad of topics including dating costs and rewards relationship challenges work life balance multiple intersecting identities negative perceptions and identity negotiation This volume is designed by and for an academic audience It addresses the dating and mating complexities of the population under study by combining autoethnographic accounts with empirical research and theoretical concepts As one of the few works to address the intricate interpersonal dynamics surrounding African American women in the professorate from a scholarly perspective Eletra S Gilchrist's Experiences of Single African American Women Professors With this Ph D I Thee Wed seeks to not only dispel myths and stereotypes but serve as an instructional tool for other professor hopefuls
