Spectacle Of Violence Homophobia Gender And Knowledge:

The Spectacle of Violence Gail Mason, 2002 The Spectacle of Violence explores the contexts and implications of homophobia related violence and hostility asking questions about where violence comes from and the effects it has The SAGE Handbook of Criminological Theory Eugene McLaughlin, Tim Newburn, 2010-07-21 An indispensable international resource The SAGE Handbook of Criminological Theory provides readers with a clear overview of criminological theory enabling them to reflect critically upon the traditional emergent and desirable theoretical positions of the discipline This handbook is essential for libraries and scholars of all levels studying the rapidly developing interdisciplinary field of criminology Chikamoneka!: Gender and Empire in Religion and Public Life Cheelo Siwila, Sylvia

Mukuka, 2022-03-21 This is a pioneering volume that emerges from the voices of women scholars who belong to the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians in their response to the subjection of women and children in religion and public life The book uses the metaphor Chikamoneka literally meaning it shall be seen to demonstrate resistance to all forms of oppression by empire to humanity especially those inflicted on women and children Some of the themes that addressed in this book are drawn from women's lived experiences This demonstrates the power of narrative theory as a tool for academic discourse The book makes a vital contribution to academic religious and secular society in the field of Gender Religion

Development and Sociology It is also the first publication by the Zambian Women of Circle Violence in Everyday Life Aliraza Javaid, 2020-07-23 Violence in Everyday Life explores how identity markers such as gender and sexuality intersect with violence synthesizing the themes of gender sexuality and violence to offering a crucial and coherent framework for understanding the interrelationship between these concepts Aliraza Javaid explores how violence is experienced at a local regional and global level and considers the ways in which hegemonic masculinities are reproduced through violence Attention is given to the particular ways in which these constructions of masculinity are reflected in areas such as homophobic violence transphobic violence and violence against intimate partners Drawing on new empirical data and his own personal experiences of violence as well as identifying new areas for further research Javaid's work represents a unique study of the interconnectedness of violence gender and sexuality and of how violence is fuelled by society's attitudes towards masculinity

Everyday Violence Simone Kolysh, 2021-09-17 Everyday Violence is based on ten years of scholarly rage against catcalling and aggression directed at women and Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender and Queer LGBTQ people of New York City Simone Kolysh recasts public harassment as everyday violence and demands an immediate end to this pervasive social problem Analyzing interviews with initiators and recipients of everyday violence through an intersectional lens Kolysh argues that gender and sexuality shaped by race class and space are violent processes that are reproduced through these interactions in the public sphere They examine short and long term impacts and make inroads in urban sociology queer and trans geographies and feminist thought Kolysh also draws a connection between public harassment gentrification and police brutality resisting criminalizing narratives in favor of restorative justice Through this work they hope for a future where women and LGBTQ people can live on their own terms free from violence Feeling Queer

Jurisprudence Senthoran Raj, 2020-01-09 This book draws on the analytic and political dimensions of queer alongside the analytic and political usefulness of emotion to navigate legal interventions aimed at progressing the rights of LGBT people Scholars activists lawyers and judges concerned with eliminating violence and discrimination against LGBT people have generated passionate conversations about pursuing law reform to make LGBT injuries intimacies and identities visible while some challenge the ways legal systems marginalise queer minorities Senthoran Sunil Raj powerfully contributes to these ongoing conversations by using emotion as an analytic frame to reflect on the ways case law seeks to progress the intimacies and identities of LGBT people from positions of injury This book catalogues a range of cases from Australia the United States and the United Kingdom to unpack how emotion shapes the decriminalisation of homosexuality hate crime interventions anti discrimination measures refugee protection and marriage equality While emotional enactments in pro LGBT jurisprudence enable new forms of recognition and visibility they can also work paradoxically to cover over queer intimacies and identities Raj innovatively shows that reading jurisprudence through emotions can make space in law to affirm rather than disavow intimacies and identities that queer conventional ideas about LGBT progress without having to abandon legal pursuits to protect LGBT people This book will be of interest to students and scholars of human rights law gender and sexuality studies and socio legal theory Queer Conflict Research Jamie J. Hagen, Samuel Ritholtz, Andrew Delatolla, 2025-06-10 Bringing together a team of international scholars this volume provides a foundational guide to queer methodologies in the study of political violence and conflict Contributors provide illuminating discussions on why queer approaches are important what they entail and how to utilise a queer approach to political violence and conflict The chapters explore a variety of methodological approaches including fieldwork interviews cultural analysis and archival research They also engage with broader academic debates such as how to work with research partners in an ethical manner Including valuable case studies from around the world the book demonstrates how these methods can be used in practice It is the first critical in depth discussion on queer methods and methodologies for research on political violence and conflict Global Feminist Ethics

Peggy DesAutels, Rebecca Whisnant, 2010 This volume is fourth in the series of annuals created under the auspices of The Association for Feminist Ethics and Social Theory FEAST The topics covered herein from peacekeeping and terrorism to sex trafficking and women s paid labor to poverty and religious fundamentalism are vital to women and to feminist movements throughout the world Global Perspectives on War, Gender and Health Hannah Bradby, 2016-04-22 Rendering the suffering of the marginalized visible has been an important aspect of feminist sociological studies of health illness and medicine with the subjective experience of those without access to institutional power being at the forefront of the research This volume analyzes the links between the suffering caused by the intentional violence of war and the unintentional suffering engendered by modern medicinal processes By establishing a fitting tribute to the academic and campaigning work of Meg Stacey Global Perspectives on War Gender and Health responds to her challenge of why medical sociology had not yet turned its gaze upon the health consequences of war A selection of international case studies are used to create a volume of significant interest to sociologists and those working in the fields of anthropology social policy social work peace war and security studies and international development

Interconnecting the Violences of Men Kate Seymour, Bob Pease, Sofia Strid, Jeff Hearn, 2024-11-04 This book aims to expand and enrich understandings of violences by focusing on gendered continuities interconnections and intersections across multiple forms and manifestations of men's violence In actively countering both the compartmentalisation of studies of violence by type and form and the tendency to conceptualise violence narrowly it aims to flesh out not delimit understandings of violence Bringing together cross disciplinary indeed transdisciplinary perspectives this book addresses how what are often seen as specific and separate violences connect closely and intricately with wider understandings of violence how there are gendered continuities between violences and how gendered violences take many forms and manifestations and are themselves intersectional Grounded by the recognition that violence is itself a form of inequality the contributors to this volume traverse the intersectional complexities across both experiences of violent inequality and what is seen to count as violence The international scope of this book will be of interest to students and academics across many fields including sociology criminology psychology social work politics gender studies child and youth studies military and peace studies environmental studies and colonial studies as well as practitioners activists and policymakers engaged in violence prevention
