People and the Bay Nancy B. Bouchier, Ken Cruikshank, 2016-01-15 This masterful social and environmental history raises questions about how decisions being made about the natural world today will shape the cities of tomorrow In 1865 John Smoke braved the ice on Burlington Bay to go spearfishing Soon after he was arrested by a fishery inspector and then convicted by a magistrate who chastised him for thinking that he was at liberty to do as he pleased with Her Majesty's property With this story Nancy Bouchier and Ken Cruikshank launch their history of the relationship between the people of Hamilton Ontario and Hamilton Harbour aka Burlington Bay From the time of European settlement through to the city's rise as an industrial power townsfolk struggled with nature and with one another to champion their particular vision of the bay as a place to live work and play As Smoke discovered the outcomes of those struggles reflected the changing nature of power in an industrial city From efforts to conserve the fishery in the 1860s to current attempts to revitalize a seriously polluted harbour each generation has tried to create what it believed would be a livable and prosperous city Industrial Series
