Massachusetts, in the House of Representatives, on the 14th and 21st of February, 1831, on the Execution of the Laws and Treaties in Favor of the Indian Tribes (Classic Reprint) Edward Everett,2016-08-26 Excerpt from Speech of Mr Everett of Massachusetts in the House of Representatives on the 14th and 21st of February 1831 on the Execution of the Laws and Treaties in Favor of the Indian Tribes In 1826 a Senator from Mississippi now deceased mr Reed disclaimed any right on the part of the State to extend her jurisdiction over the Indians At the last session said he of the Legislature of Mississippi a proposition was made to extend the civil power of their courts to their own citizens who had contracted debts within the State and had fled to this savage sanctuary The matter was debated many days and it was at last decid ed that there existed no power in the State to extend its laws in the manner sought by the proposition These authorities I think will abundantly prove that the claim of the Southern States to exercise jurisdiction over tribes with whom there are existing treaties forms a new era Whether it be that to which the Secretary of War alludes I pretend not to decide About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Speech of Mr. Everett, of Massachusetts, on the 14th and 21st of February, 1831, on the Execution of the Laws and Treaties in Favor of the Indian Tribes Edward Everett,1831 Speech of Mr. Everett, of Massachusetts Everett Everett,2015-07-10 Excerpt from Speech of Mr Everett of Massachusetts Delivered in the Senate of the United States Feb 8 1854 Nebraska and Kansas Territorial Bill Mr Everett said Mr President I intimated yesterday that if time had been allowed I should have been glad to submit to the Senate my views at some length in relation to some of the grave constitutional and political principles and questions involved in the measure before us Even for questions of a lower order those of a merely historical character the time which has elapsed since this bill in its present form was brought into the Senate which I think is but a fortnight ago yesterday has hardly been sufficient for one not previously possessed of the information to acquaint myself fully with the details belonging to the subject before us even to these which relate to subordinate parts of it such as our Indian relations Who will undertake to say how they will be affected by the measure now before the Senate either under the provisions of the bill in that respect as it stood yesterday or as it will stand now that all the sections relative to the Indians have been stricken out And then sir with respect to that other and greater subject the question of slavery as connected with our recent territorial acquisitions it would take a person more than a fortnight to even read through the voluminous debates since 1848 the knowledge of which is necessary for a thorough comprehension of this important and delicate subject For these reasons sir I shall not undertake at this time to discuss any of these larger questions I rise for a much more limited purpose to speak for myself and without authority to speak for anybody else as a friend and supporter of the compromises of 1850 and to inquire whether it is my duty and how far it is the duty of others who agree with me in that respect out of fidelity to those compromises to support the bill which is now on your table awaiting the action of the Senate This I feel is a narrow question but this is the question which I propose at no very great length to consider at the present time I will however before I enter upon this subject say that the main question involved in the passage of a bill of this kind is well calculated to exalt and expand the mind We are about to take a first step in laying the foundations of two new States of two sister independent Republics hereafter to enter into the Union which already embraces thirty one of these sovereign States and which no doubt in the course of the present century will include a much larger number I think Lord Bacon gives the second place among the great of the earth to the founders of States Conditores imperiorum And though it may seem to us that we are now legislating for a remote part of the unsubdued wilderness yet the time will come and that not a very long time when these scarcely existing territories when these almost empty wastes will be the abode of hundreds and thousands of kindred civilized fellow men and fellow citizens Yes sir the time is not far distant probably when Kansas and Nebraska now unfamiliar names to us all will sound to the ears of their inhabitants as Virginia and Massachusetts and Kentucky and Ohio and the names of the other old States do to their children Sir these infant Territories if they may even at present be called by that name occupy a most important position in the geography of this continent About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com
