The True Stories of American Slaves Work Projects Administration,2022-11-13 In The True Stories of American Slaves the Work Projects Administration WPA delves into the rich, often painful tapestry of African American history through firsthand accounts of former slaves. This collection produced during the Great Depression as part of the Federal Writers Project showcases the voices of individuals who endured the brutal realities of slavery and later sought to recount their experiences. The literary style is characterized by a raw authenticity preserving the dialects and expressions of its narrators, which adds a poignant texture to the narrative and creates an immersive historical context that is both engaging and enlightening. The WPA was established in the 1930s to provide jobs and stimulate the economy by employing writers, artists, and intellectuals. The initiative to collect personal narratives from former slaves stemmed from a recognition of the importance of preserving African American history and culture during a time when those voices were at risk of being silenced. This undertaking exemplifies a collective effort to confront the past and address the legacies of oppression, emphasizing the necessity of acknowledging history in the face of ongoing racial injustices. This book is essential reading for anyone interested in American history, African American studies, or the narratives that shape our understanding of identity and resilience. By providing direct access to the voices of those who lived through slavery, The True Stories of American Slaves serves as a powerful reminder of the complexities of history and the importance of memory in shaping a more just society.

Conjure Tales and Stories of the Color Line Charles W. Chesnutt,2000-06-01 Unlike the popular Uncle Remus stories of Joel Chandler Harris, Charles W. Chesnutt's tales probe psychological depths in black people unheard of before in Southern regional writing. They also expose the anguish of mixed-race men and women and the consequences of racial hatred, mob violence, and moral compromise. This important collection contains all the stories in his two published volumes, The Conjure Woman and The Wife of His Youth, along with two uncollected works, the tragic Dave's Neckliss and Baxter's Procustes. Chesnutt's parting shot at prejudice. For more than seventy years, Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English-speaking world. The Eternal Moment and Other Stories Edward Morgan Forster,2022-01-01 Imagine if you can a small room hexagonal in shape like the cell of a bee. It is lighted neither by window nor by lamp, yet it is filled with a soft radiance. There are no apertures for ventilation, yet the air is fresh. There are no musical instruments, and yet at the moment that my meditation opens this room is throbbing with melodious sounds An arm chair is in the centre by its side a reading desk that is all the furniture And in the arm chair there sits a swaddled lump of flesh a woman about five feet high with a face as white as a fungus It is to her that the little room belongs An electric bell rang The woman touched a switch and the music was silent I suppose I must see who it is she thought and set her chair in motion The chair like the music was worked by machinery and it rolled her to the other side of the room where the bell still rang importunately Who is it she called Her voice was irritable for she had been interrupted often since the music began She knew several thousand people in certain directions human intercourse had advanced enormously But when she listened into the receiver her white face wrinkled into smiles and she said Very well Let us talk I will isolate myself I do not expect anything important will happen for the next five minutes for I can give you fully five minutes Kuno Then I must deliver my lecture on Music during the Australian Period She touched the isolation knob so that no one else could speak to her Then she touched the lighting apparatus and the little room was plunged into darkness Be quick she called her irritation returning Be quick Kuno here I am in the dark wasting my time But it was fully fifteen seconds before the round plate that she held in her hands began to glow A faint blue light shot across it darkening to purple and presently she could see the image of her son who lived on the other side of the earth and he could see her Kuno how slow you are He smiled gravely I really believe you enjoy dawdling I have called you before mother but you were always busy or isolated I have something particular to say What is it dearest boy Be quick Why could you not send it by pneumatic post Because I prefer saying such a thing I want Well I want you to come and see me Vashti watched his face in the blue plate But I can see you she exclaimed What more do you want I want to see you not through the Machine said Kuno I want to speak to you not through the wearisome Machine Oh hush said his mother vaguely shocked You mustn't say anything against the Machine Why not One mustn't You talk as if a god had made the Machine cried the other I believe that you pray to it when you are unhappy Men made it do not forget that Great men but men The Machine is much but it is not everything I see something like you in this plate but I do not see you I hear something like you through this telephone but I do not hear you That is why I want you to come Come and stop with me Pay me a visit so that we can meet face to face and talk about the hopes that are in my mind
