Together with Hearings Held March 10-31, 1965 United States. Congress. House. Foreign Affairs,1965 The End of China's Non-Intervention Policy in Africa Obert Hodzi,2018-10-22 This book gives a compelling analysis and explanation of shifts in China s non intervention policy in Africa Systematically connecting the neoclassical realist theoretical logic with an empirical analysis of China s intervention in African civil wars the volume highlights a methodical interlink between theoretical and empirical analysis that takes into consideration the changing status of rising powers in the global system and its effect on their intervention behaviour Based on field research and expert interviews it provides a rigorous analysis of China s emergent intervention behaviour in some key African conflicts in Libya South Sudan and Mali and broadens the study of external interventions in civil wars to include the intervention behaviour of non Western rising powers Obert Hodzi is Visiting Researcher at the African Studies Center Boston University USA and Postdoctoral Researcher at the University of Helsinki Finland Soviet Policy in Africa O. Igbo Natufe,2011-11-08 Written by Soviet politics and international relations specialist Igbo Natufe Soviet Policy in Africa offers a critical analysis of Soviet and Western foreign policies that presents a balanced perspective on the understanding and evolution of Soviet ideology and politics Using on extensive research Natufe traces the evolution of Soviet foreign policy from 1917 through 1980 focusing on the ideological constructs of Vladimir Lenin the founder of the Soviet state through the contending interpretations of Joseph Stalin and finally to Nikita Khrushchev and Leonid Brezhnev He reveals how the Soviets continually used the tenets of Marxism Leninism for global issues even though their interpretations sometimes varied between individual leaders Natufe also shows how the Soviet government viewed post 1945 Europe as favorable to revolutionary tendencies particularly in the colonies Africa became a battleground between Eastern and Western ideologies and Soviet policies posed opportunities and threats to the continents independence movements In addition Natufe discusses China and the West as well as presenting case studies of Soviet foreign policy Scholars and students of international politics will find Soviet Policy in Africa a well researched thorough study of this often overlooked subject China and Africa Ian Taylor,2007-01-24 With China s rise to the status of world power trade and political links between Africa and China have been escalating at an astonishing rate Ian Taylor an expert in this field gives a comprehensive assessment of relations between China and Africa Eastern Europe, the Soviet Union, and Africa Chris

Saunders, Helder Adegar Fonseca, Lena Dallywater, 2023-04-27 It is now widely recognised that a Cold War perspective falls short in unfolding the complex geographies of connections and the multipolarity of actions and transactions that were shaped through the movement of individuals and ideas from Africa to the East and from the East to Africa in the decades in which African countries moved to independence Adopting an interdisciplinary transregional perspective this volume casts new light on aspects of the role of Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union in the decolonisation of Africa Taking further themes explored in a collection of essays published by the editors in 2019 the twelve case studies by authors from South Africa Czech Republic Portugal Russia Hungary Italy Canada Serbia and Germany draw on new sources to explore the history of the ties that existed between African liberation movements and the socialist bloc some of which continue to influence relationships today Chapters contribute to three relevant main themes that resonate in a number of scholarly fields of inquiry ranging from Global Studies Transregional Studies Cold War Studies Global History to African Studies Eastern European Russian and Slavic Studies Reconsiderations Resources and Reverberations Drawing upon newly opened archives and combining transregional perspectives with sources in different languages chapters explicitly point out the shortcomings of past research and debates in the respective field They highlight new avenues which have been developing and which need to be further developed Reconsiderations Selected case studies address the resources of those being active and involved in decolonisation processes be it in East North West and South They reveal Which resources both material and intellectual are the actors drawing upon On the other hand From which resources are individuals on one side or the other reciprocally or intermittently intentionally kept away Resources Finally the third theme puts an emphasis on the historicity of the processes depicted Studies point to the gaps and dead ends of international support the paths that peter out but also to repercussions and reverberations up until today Reverberations Taken these three themes together the individual chapters contribute to the overall question of Which general historical narratives about the second half of the 20th century are changing based on these new research findings
