Transnational Discourses on Class, Gender, and Cultural Identity Irene Marques, 2012-01-16 This exploration of class feminism and cultural identity including issues of race nation colonialism and economic imperialism focuses on the work of four writers the Mozambican Mia Couto the Portuguese Jos Saramago the Brazilian Clarice Lispector and the South African J M Coetzee In the first section the author discusses the political aspects of Couto s collection of short stories Contos do nascer da terra Stories of the Birth of the Land and Saramago s novel O ano da morte de Ricardo Reis The Year of the Death of Ricardo Reis The second section explores similar themes in Coetzee s Life and Times of Michael K and Lispector s A hora da estrela The Hour of the Star Marques argues that these four writers are political in the sense that they bring to the forefront issues pertaining to the power of literature to represent misrepresent and debate matter related to different subaltern subjects the postcolonial subject the poor subject the poor other and the female subject She also discusses the ahuman other in the context of the subjectivity of the natural world the dead and the unborn and shows how these aspects are present in all the different societies addressed and point to the mystical dimension that permeates most societies With regard to Couto s work this ahuman other is approached mostly through a discussion of the holistic animist values and epistemologies that inform and guide Mozambican traditional societies while in further analyses the notion is approached via discussions on phenomenology elementality and divinity following the philosophies of Levinas and Irigaray and mystical consciousness in Zen Buddhism and the psychology of Jung

Human Intellect: Optimal Tuning and Control Yuri Iserlis, 2020-07-22 It is easily can be proved that the human brain equipped sense organs can work as an universal measuring tool and measure with sufficient accuracy after some training not only a distance mass or volume but and parameters of important personal functions Unfortunately this instrument does not have an indicator device panel and results of measurements usually hidden in the depth of subconscious part of mind To extract these results of measurements at first is needed to find an access code for this information secondly to deduce this information in a convenient for perception form and after that to decipher it Based on this approach a new method of direct measurement of intellectual parameters was used for appraisal such characteristics of intellect and mind as creativity intuition willpower stress level vital energy index etc Verification of the accuracy of measurement of some bio physical parameters measured by the same method for example number of thrombocytes in the blood is carried out by comparison with laboratory blood tests Research and physical measurements of a person s intellectual abilities have shown that they can change significantly from the influence of many external factors and first of all of light electromagnetic and sound perceptions of the senses both for the better and for the worse This allows significantly increasing the capabilities and expanding the range of use of any entrainment technology Using algorithms of multi parameter optimization the method allows increasing the level of intellect and its components in several times practically for everyone Measurement of willpower and stress opens the prospect for many people to maintain their health and activity at the proper level throughout life In the book are collected also some rules and methods allowing to support intellectual abilities of the mind on an optimum level by means of mindset management control of the subconscious mind cognitive control and control emotions Method of measurement of intellectual abilities and compatibility of team members can be used in process of the hiring searching a bride etc
