Catch the Fire Michael Wilkinson, Peter Althouse, 2014-03-15 A recent phenomenon of charismatic renewal took place in Toronto in the mid 1990s Commonly known as the Toronto Blessing and operated by the former Vineyard Church leaders John and Carol Arnott the renewal was defined by reports of uncontrollable laughter weeping speaking in tongues animal noises and falling on the floor during worship Sympathetic Christians embraced these practices while others who believed that this form of worship boarded on spectacle rejected them By the end of the 1990s most people thought that the renewal was over Yet in the first decade of the twenty first century the authors a sociologist and a theologian heard rumors that the Toronto church now known as Catch the Fire was still holding mass meetings with upwards of 2 000 people in attendance They also learned of an emerging practice of soaking prayer an adaption of Pentecostal charismatic prayer that participants and leaders claim facilitates and expands the reception of divine love in order to give it away in acts of forgiveness reconciliation compassion and benevolence Soaking the authors reveal is a metaphor for practices like resting in the Spirit prayer for spiritual gifts healing prophecy impartation and supports overall charismatic spirituality Attending Catch the Fire conferences churches and house meetings in the United States Canada Britain Australia and New Zealand Wilkinson and Althouse observed first hand how people soak what it means to soak and why soaking is considered an important practice among charismatics

Quicke,2006-09-01 Leadership books and seminars notwithstanding many pastors remain unclear on how to effectively lead their congregations Some even believe that preaching needs to take a backseat to leadership Dismissing such comparisons as artificial pastor and professor Michael Quicke notes how the Scriptures themselves reveal transformational leadership through proclamation by preachers God s preachers Quicke asserts are inevitably his leaders Powerful preaching and disciple making leadership go hand in hand in the Bible as well as in the contemporary church Both are inspired by God s energy The intentional pastor will be renewed to discern that biblical preaching is central to the events of church life and mission      Church Health for the Twenty-First Century John Marshall Crowe,2017-03-21 What does the Bible have to say about church health In this new resource from John Marshall Crowe clergy and lay leaders alike will discover What are the characteristics of churches where Jesus is the head or not How to disciple church leaders into a healthy team Are the Great Commission and the Great Commandment connected to ministry for the mentally ill How can biblical preaching promote church health All types of churches and all kinds of pastors will find this a useful and inspiring book for individual or small group study Helpful questions follow each chapter to assist in stimulating thoughtful discussion and meaningful action      Redeeming The Time Daryl Poe,2024-10-08 The Church s immutable mission is to intentionally share Christ s kingdom The believer s divine journey remains absolute purposeful and communal Even so as the church endeavors to fulfill its mission obstacles obscure the pathway forward Our once enlightened society slowly dims with the dissolution of revered institutions especially those of marriage and the family Prevailing secular humanism assigns Christian orthodoxy to the realm of fictional radicalism Amid such traumatic chaos can the church maintain a faithful outlook In a post Christian world how does the Church move forward Redeeming the Time God s CLEAR Path Forward biblically examines Christ s transformational leadership as the standard required for church revitalization Meaningful Church membership can only be found by loving and following Christ alone He is The Way forward Accordingly church leaders must adopt Christ's servant leadership philosophy with a unified partnership that renews our ministries to our families church and community Believers are summoned to live a spiritually disciplined life for the purpose of godliness Essential discipleship therefore must center upon full obedience to the Holy Scripture not out of mere duty but from an intimate loving disciple's relationship The ministry objective is to engage discipleship not as a program or church function but as a Christian lifestyle that is begun and nurtured in the home Focusing on parental responsibility is not to suggest that the community of faith has no didactic role rather it better organizes and supports biblical discipleship in the context of the family unit Redeeming the Time biblically examines Christ's transformational leadership as the servant way the appointed way the passionate way and the challenging way For all who follow Him He is our CLEAR Path forward
