Kaufman, 2008-08-18 William Kaufman grew up on his mother's kugel and his father's boyhood stories The son of Jewish immigrants from Lithuania and the Ukraine and one of five children he learned how to translate his colorful childhood into tales of his own regaling audiences of family friends and eventually his retirement community with periodic public readings Now at the age of 93 Kaufman makes his stories filled with a sharp wit and telling detail available to a wider audience for the first time In the title story a young Jewish boy is shamed by his narrow minded teacher when she forces him to admit before the whole class that his mother cannot read English His mother's eventual encounter with the teacher offers a lesson in self respect with just the right balance of grace and moxie In The Search for God in the A the expedition meets with comic results when the young boy refuses to be bullied in this David and Goliath style parable These semi autobiographical stories populated with outsized and magnetic characters subtly layer the specifics of the Jewish experience with universal dilemmas of childhood growing up and old age Sur l'eau, La Vie errante, and other stories Guy de Maupassant, 1911
