Last Letters of Aubrey Beardsley John Gray,2015-07-10 Excerpt from Last Letters of Aubrey Beardsley With an Introductory Note Aubrey Beardsley about whom much has been written since his death in the month of March 1898 now speaks for himself His work and the appreciations of many of his literary and artist friends present together a fairly complete picture of the man whose engaging figure was so familiar in London during a very few years Of the work there remains probably nothing to be said It is certain that his imaginative gifts never showed a sign of fatigue or exhaustion and it is equally certain that artistically and intellectually he was very far from his maturity when death came What that maturity would have produced is a speculation as idle as must be barren any attempts to determine the sources of his originality He was utterly devoid of any malevolence towards his fellow creatures whether individually or collectively He had in his nature a great possibility of affection if personal timidity or sensitiveness baulked its expression About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works [Last Letters of Aubrey Beardsley : with an Introductory Note by the Rev. publishing history of Beardsley's compositions to update existing descriptive bibliographies and to turn to an empirical method for a socialized model of literary production Letters from Audrey Beardsley to Leonard Smithers Aubrey V.
