Mills, 2015-07-20 Excerpt from The Lhota Nagas I have attempted in this monograph to give some account of the Lhota Nagas a tribe whose dour attitude towards inquirers has caused them to be somewhat neglected in the past Boasting no great knowledge of anthropology I have avoided theories and confined myself to facts During some three years residence at Mokochung as Assistant Commissioner I have had considerable opportunity of becoming acquainted with the habits and customs of this tribe many individual members of which are now my personal friends The generosity of the Assam Government has made the publication of this monograph possible and my thanks are due to my many friends who have assisted me in the preparation of it But for the encouragement and advice of Mr J H Hutton Deputy Commissioner of the Naga Hills and Director of Ethnography in Assam it would probably never have been written He has helped me throughout in every possible way and has contributed a most valuable introduction and notes I am further indebted to Mr Hutton for six photographs and a drawing while for two other photographs my thanks are due to Mr S G Butler I have further to thank Miss

A M Grace of Hove for the coloured frontispiece and Miss E M Paterson for the drawing of the median bands of the two types of rukhusu Lt Col J Shakespear has been kind enough to do the index for me About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works     The Lhota Nagas - Scholar's Choice Edition J.
