Neher,1999 This innovative text explores the extraordinary personal and political lives of ten leaders who profoundly changed twentieth century Asian history China India Vietnam Cambodia and Indonesia are interpreted through the lives of Mao Zedong Deng Xiaoping Mohandas Gandhi Indira Gandhi Ho Chi Minh Ngo Dinh Diem Norodom Sihanouk Pol Pot Sukarno and Suharto Some recast their countries by force of arms others by the power of their ideology Some were born into poverty others into privilege Some were democrats some autocrats some communists But however great their differences each can claim to be an authentic nationalist Using a biographical approach this book will stimulate students to think about the relationship between political leadership and nationalism Government Leaders, Military Rulers and Political Activists David W. Del Testa,2014-01-27 In each volume an introductory essay outlines of history of the disciplines under discussion and describes how changes and innovations in these disciplines have affected our lives The biographies that follow are organized in an A Z format each biography is divided into a life section describing the individual s life and influences and a legacy section summarizing the impact of that individual s work throughout history These biographies cover a diverse group of men and women from around the globe and throughout history Franklin Delano Roosevelt Mao Tse tung and Genghis Khan are among the 200 well known historical figures included in this volume Examples of other lesser known yet important individuals covered in this work are Gustavas Adolphus Swedish empire creator Hatshepsut queen of ancient Egyptian dynasty and Jean Jaur s French socialist leader and pacifist Each synopsis provides information on each individual s enduring impact on the common understanding of fundamental themes of human existence Politics of Dress in Asia and the Americas Mina Roces,2010-01-20 Explores the ways in which dress has been influential in the political agendas and self representations of politicians in a variety of regimes from democratic to authoritarian Arguing that dress is part of politics this book shows how dress has been crucial to the constructions of nationhood and national identities in Asia and the Americas Dictionary of World Biography: The 20th century, O-Z Frank Northen Magill, Christina J. Moose, Alison Aves, 1999-11 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography Sukarno John David Legge, 2003 Sukarno was one of the great charismatic leaders of the post war world To some he was the architect of his nation to others a flamboyant and extravagant dictator Authoritarian Modernization in Indonesia's Early Independence Period Farabi Fakihi, 2020-09-07 In Authoritarian Modernization in Indonesia's Early Independence Period Farabi Fakihi offers a historical analysis of the foundational years leading to Indonesia's New Order state 1966-1998 during the early independence period The study looks into the structural and ideological state formation during the so called Liberal Democracy 1950-1957 and Sukarno's Guided Democracy 1957-1965 In particular it analyses how the international technical aid network and the dominant managerialist ideology of the period legitimized a new managerial elite The book discusses the development of managerial education in the civil and military sectors in Indonesia The study gives a strongly backed argument that Sukarno's constitutional reform during the Guided Democracy period inadvertently provided a strong managerial blueprint for the New Order developmentalist state Who's Who in Modern History Alan Palmer, 2019-05-07 Who's Who in Modern History is a unique reference book which examines those individuals who have shaped the political world since 1860 Coverage is truly global including the most important figures in Europe Asia North America Latin America Africa and Australasia It provides an easy to use A-Z layout authoritative detailed biographies of the most important figures since 1860 from Clemenceau and Churchill to King Fahd and Benazir Bhutto bibliographical references for each entry to aid further research extensive cross referencing an essential guide for students researchers and the general reader alike The Life and Times of Sukarno Sunil Kumar Sen Gupta, 1975 King of the Mountain Arnold M. Ludwig, 2002-01-01 People may choose to ignore their animal heritage by interpreting their behavior as divinely inspired socially purposeful or even self serving all of which they attribute to being human but they masticate fornicate and procreate much as chimps and apes do so they should have little cause to get upset if they learn that they act like other primates when they politically agitate debate abdicate placate and administrate too from the book King of the Mountain presents the startling findings of Arnold M Ludwig's eighteen year investigation into why people want to rule The answer may seem obvious power privilege and perks but any adequate answer also needs to explain why so many rulers cling to power even when they are miserable trust nobody feel besieged and face almost certain death Ludwig's results suggest that leaders of nations tend to act remarkably like monkeys and apes in the way they come to power govern and rule Profiling every ruler of a recognized country in the twentieth century over 1 900 people in all Ludwig establishes how rulers came to power how they lost power the dangers they faced and the odds of their being assassinated committing suicide or dying a natural death Then concentrating on a smaller sub set of 377 rulers for whom more extensive personal information was available he compares six different kinds of leaders examining their characteristics their childhoods and their mental stability or instability to identify the main predictors of later political success Ludwig's penetrating observations though presented in a lighthearted and entertaining way offer important insight into why humans have engaged in war throughout recorded history as well as suggesting how they might live together in peace

The Cambridge History of Southeast Asia Nicholas Tarling, 1999 Volume 2 discusses Southeast Asia's interaction with foreign countries during the period c 1500 to c 1800

The Cambridge History of Southeast Asia: Volume 2, The Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Nicholas Tarling, 1992 Southeast Asia has long been seen as a unity although other terms have been used to describe it Further India Little China the Nanyang The region has had a protracted maritime history Confucianism Buddhism Islam Hinduism Christianity are all represented It has seen a quintet of colonial powers Britain France The Netherlands Spain the United States Most recently it has become one of the fastest growing parts of the world economy The very term Southeast Asia is clearly more than a geographical expression The Cambridge History of Southeast Asia is a multi authored treatment of the whole of mainland and island Southeast Asia from Burma to Indonesia Unlike other histories of the region it is not divided on a country by country basis and is not structured purely chronologically but rather takes a thematic and regional approach to Southeast Asia's history This volume the second and final in the series takes us into the nineteenth and twentieth centuries from the late eighteenth century of the Christian era when most of the region was incorporated into European empires to the complexity and dramatic change of the post World War II period It covers the economic and social life as well as the religious and popular culture of the region as they develop over two centuries The political structures of the region are also closely examined from the insurgencies and rebellions of early this century to the modern Nationalist movements which challenged the control of the colonial powers and led to the formation of independent states Under the editorship of Nicholas Tarling Professor of History at the University of Auckland New Zealand each chapter is well integrated into the whole Professor Tarling has assembled a highly respected team of international scholars who have presented the latest historical research on the region and succeeded in producing a provocative and exciting account of the region's history

Official History in Modern Indonesia Michael Wood, 2005-08-01 Dealing with New Order perceptions of the past this study gives insights into how the past can be used for purposes of national building and regime legitimization and into the nature of the New Order The Suharto regime created a coherent history that is reflected in recent archaeological and historical research in popular histories and biographies in monuments and in school textbooks The author describes an official history stretching from the proto Indonesia of Majapahit through the Indonesian Revolution up to the birth of the New Order in 1965. He also gives a counterview to this history stressing Indonesia's place in the larger Islamic world. The past emphasized political stability and national unity under the guidance of the military and socially disruptive ideas were to be avoided. The Cambridge History of Southeast Asia: Volume 2, Part 2, From World War II to the Present Nicholas Tarling, 2000-01-28. In these four volumes published in paperback in 2000, twenty-two scholars of international reputation consider the whole of mainland and island Southeast Asia from Burma to Indonesia. Each volume has a new preface which points to the relationships with the other volumes. The prefaces also comment on some of the research into and thinking about the subject undertaken since the original contributions were completed for the first edition. Volume 2 Part 2 covers the period from World War II to the present and examines the end of European colonial empires, the emergence of political structures of the independent states, economic and social change, religious change in contemporary Southeast Asia, Southeast Asia's role and identity in decolonisation and the ongoing weakening of links with the West. The 20th Century O-Z Frank N. Magill, 2013-05-13. Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history. This is not a who's who. Instead, each entry provides an in-depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned. Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements. The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history. All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography. China and the Shaping of Indonesia, 1949-1965 Hong Liu, 2011. The interactions and mutual perceptions of China and Indonesia were a significant element in Asia's postcolonial transformation but as a result of prevailing emphasis on diplomatic and political relations within a Cold War and nation-state framework, their multi-dimensional interrelationship and its complex domestic ramifications have escaped scholarly scrutiny. China and the Shaping of Indonesia provides a meticulous account of versatile interplay between knowledge, power, ethnicity and diplomacy in the context of Sino-Indonesian interactions between 1949 and 1965. Taking a transnational approach that views Asia as a flexible geographical and political construct, this book addresses three central questions: First, what images of China were prevalent in Indonesia and how were narratives about China construed and reconstructed? Second, why did the China Metaphor, the projection of an imagined foreign land onto the local intellectual and political milieu, become central to Indonesians' conception of themselves and a cause for self-criticism and rediscovery? Third, how was the China Metaphor incorporated into Indonesia's domestic politics and culture and how did it affect the postcolonial transformation, the fate of the ethnic Chinese minority and Sino-Indonesian diplomacy? Employing a wide range of hitherto untapped primary materials in Indonesian and Chinese as well as his own interviews, Hong Liu presents a compelling argument that many influential politicians and intellectuals among them Sukarno, Hatta and Pramoedya utilized China as an alternative model of modernity in conceiving and developing projects of social engineering cultural regeneration and political restructuring that helped shape the trajectory of modern Indonesia The multiplicity of China thus constituted a site of political contestations and intellectual imaginations The study is a major contribution both to the intellectual and political history of Indonesia and to the reconceptualization of Asian studies it also serves as a timely reminder of the importance of historicizing China s rising soft power in a transnational Asia Growing with the Grain Patricia A. Emison,2005

Sukarno L.J. Giebels,2015-08-01 Sukarno a biography is the first English language biography on Sukarno 1901 1970 the founding father and first president of Indonesia The book is both a biography of Sukarno and an account of the birth and ascent of the state of Indonesia The author reveals many little known facts and events He makes the reader realize that to understand the character of its first president is to understand today s Indonesia Sukarno was born in 1901 as the son of a schoolteacher in a country that had been a Dutch colony for almost three centuries For most of his life he was a subject of The Netherlands at least formally Although he never set foot in The Netherlands towards the end of his life he could still recite the names of all the Frisian waterways or all the train stations between major Dutch towns Sukarno once confessed that he dreamt prayed and swore in Dutch But he loathed the colonizer As soon as he became the president he banned the speaking of Dutch His charisma oratorical talent intelligence and ruthlessness eventually allowed this former architecture student to become the leader of the nationalist movement known as Indonesia Merdeka which means Indonesia Independent Although it took another four bloody years until the Dutch would accept Indonesia s independence for Indonesians today Merdeka became a reality after August 17 1945 But the departure of the Dutch in the 1950s didn t mean that president Sukarno was suddenly without enemies At least four attempts were made on his life between 1957 and 1962 The Indonesian president was convinced that the CIA saw him as a communist threat and was behind at least one of the assassination attempts Today s Indonesia still bears the mark of its first president Sukarno developed the five pillars of Pancasila the official philosophical foundation of the Indonesian state belief in God nationalism international humanism consensus democracy and social justice For example the fifth pillar social justice still requires the Indonesian government to allocate a substantial part of the national income to social security provisions such as unemployment health and disability insurance as well as pensions Sukarno s main constitutional heritage is the fact that Indonesia has become a unitary state Indonesia is an archipelago that is as wide as the distance between Ireland and the Caucasus it is the fourth most populous nation in the world Countries of similar size and diversity all have adopted federal forms of governance But in Indonesia federation is still a loaded concept one that many see as a betrayal of the fight against the colonial power This attests to how certainly Sukarno will remain a vital part of his nation s history About the author Dr Lambert J Giebels 1935 2011 was a Dutch politician and writer who was renowned in the Netherlands for his political biographies His two volume biography of Sukarno written in Dutch originally consisted of 1 100 pages The English translation Sukarno A biography is an abridged version of those two
