English Interlinear Transliteration and Translation R' israel Itshakov, 2022-11-18 Every Jew knows the exciting story of Purim The Megillah's lessons in faith are beyond comparison and take us on an awe inspiring journey of the Jew in exile It has the full text of the Megillah and tells the story in Hebrew with Russian transliteration As Purim is the most festive and joyful holiday of the year every single word in the Megillah must be heard or else one has not fulfilled their obligation As its lessons of Divine Providence are timeless and eternal every word must be heard clearly and its eternal messages taken to heart The Megillah must be read twice once on Purim night and once the following morning If one forgot to read at night or was otherwise prevented there is no way to make it up during the day Book of Esther - Megillah Esther [Hebrew & English] Sages of the Great Assembly Mordechai, 2024-01-16 About 2400 years ago About 70 years after the first temple was destroyed The people of Israel lived in exile in the kingdom of Ahasuerus from India to Cush Those in the know know that there is a promise that the exile will come to an end when the 70 years have passed Most Jews lived a normal life worked shopped and went to Ahasuerus' feast They are all immersed in the material life of exile and it seems as if there is no chance of redemption no chance of returning home An entire nation sleeps deeply in spiritual sleep One day the king appointed a new minister his name is Haman and he did not tolerate the Jews He already had an unpleasant history with Mordechai the Jew and he manages to convince the king to impose a terrible decree on the people of Israel a decree of destruction In one day to rise up and kill all the Jews in the empire Suddenly the exile becomes worse than it had been Instead of redemption the Jews find themselves threatened with a sharp sword around their necks The Story is known we read it every year in the scroll we had a decree of Haman and it turned out to be a great miracle for all the Jews everything our enemies planned turned on their heads and the Jews enjoyed light and gladness happiness and honor Since that miracle every year in the month of Adar we celebrate the holiday of Purim In our generation the inner meaning of this great holiday has been almost forgotten In most of our communities Purim has become a holiday of food drinking and parties What remains from this great joy In the end what remains is the joy that is rooted spiritually and immeasurably high In this article we will try to touch the tip of it and the internal part of Purim and understand what a wonderful opportunity is renewed for us once a year on the 14th of Adar and what can be accomplished with that great enlightenment of Purim First of all it should be well understood that holidays in Judaism are not memorial ceremonies Holidays are happening now The Ramchal says in the book Derech Hashem that again that period of the holiday or the holiday will illuminate upon us the kind of light that shone then and the result of the same light will be renewed in us There is no spiritual absence that the miracle that happened in Shushan could happen to us again this year As it says in the Megillat Esther Consequently these days are recalled and observed in every generation by every family every province and every city And these days of Purim shall never cease among the Jews and the memory of them shall never perish among their descendants There is no end to these days of Purim Although the memory of what is important the doctrine of Kabbalah teaches us that the essence of the matter in these times is the action that works in the human soul To learn and get to know the basics of the holiday and of course to observe the customs of Purim according to Halacha so the great enlightenment of Purim can enlighten the soul of each of us Ari ZL writes that the enlightenment revealed on Purim is higher than all the holidays and even from Shabbat Even the holiest day of the year Yom Kippur is like Purim The sages said that all the festivals would be canceled except for Purim So great that Purim will stay forever
