The Marrying Kind No 128:

Not The Marrying Kind N. Barker, 2012-02-22 Not the Marrying Kind is a new and comprehensive exploration of the contemporary same sex marriage debates in several jurisdictions including Australia Canada South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States It departs from much of the existing scholarship on same sex marriage which argues either for or against marriage for same sex couples Instead this book begins from a critical analysis of the institution of marriage itself as well as separate forms of relationship recognition such as civil partnership PaCS domestic partnership and asks whether and how feminist critiques of marriage might be applied specifically to same sex marriage In doing this the author combines the theories of second wave feminism with insights from contemporary queer theory The Marrying Kind Heather Conrad, 2008 Meet Zoëy James an attractive brainy student and talented tennis player Danielle Delacroix the beautiful and wealthy child of an aristocratic French family Patti Hammond a funny irreverent redhead and ex cheerleader Brenna Donovan an Irish beauty who is sweet loving and devoutly Catholic and Elizabeth Riordan brilliant but remote and aloof since the death of her mother These five women stay in touch through marriages affairs estrangements and finally reconciliation over 35 years as their warm funny friendships stay intact in a changing world Not the Marrying Kind Charlotte Moore, 1993-10 The Marrying Kind Judy Christenberry, 2007 From the moment Jonathan Davis rang Diane Black doorbell mistaking her for his blind date she knew the sexy developer couldn't be more different from her He squired around gorgeous flirty dim-witted Dallas socialites not modest investment bankers like her Still the man made her heart flutter under her pin-striped suit as it hadn't in years John was many things a millionaire a player a catch But he'd never be a husband For him marriage equaled mistake Diane might be the quintessential forever kind of woman but he was confident he could avoid that trap That is until he kissed her And then of course there was the matter of the baby Not the Marrying Kind Robyn Penman, Yvonne Stolk, 1983 The Marrying Kind Brenda Maddox, 1982 Supreme Court , Marriage Trafficking Kaye Quek, 2018-03-09 This book examines the traffic in women for marriage a phenomenon that has been largely overlooked in international efforts to address the problem of human trafficking In contrast to current international and state-based approaches to trafficking which tend to focus on sex trafficking and trafficking for forced labour this book seeks to establish how marriage as an institution is often implicated in the occurrence of trafficking in women The book aims firstly to establish why marriage has tended not to be included in dominant conceptions of trafficking in persons and secondly to determine whether certain types of marriage may constitute cases of human trafficking in and of themselves Through the use of case studies on forced marriage mail order bride MOB marriage and Fundamentalist Mormon polygamy this book demonstrates that certain kinds of marriage may in fact constitute situations of trafficking in persons and together form the under-recognised phenomenon of marriage trafficking In addition the book offers a new perspective on the types of harm involved in trafficking in women by developing a framework for identifying the particular abuses characteristic to marriage trafficking It argues that the traffic in women for marriage cannot be understood merely as a subset of sex trafficking or trafficking for forced labour but rather constitutes a distinctive form of trafficking in its own right This book will be of great interest to scholars and postgraduates working in the fields of human rights theory and institutions political science international law transnational crime trafficking in persons and feminist political theory From Sodomy Laws to Same-Sex Marriage Sean Brady, Mark Seymour, 2019-07-25 Inspired by recent adoptions of same sex marriage From Sodomy Laws to Same Sex Marriage provides international perspectives on the legal and social history of same sex relationships from the early 19th century to the present Its emphasis is on areas where the impetus for change has been most noticeable Europe the Americas and Australasia From Sodom and Gomorrah to Britain s sodomy laws and continental Europe s abhorrence of sexual acts against nature the history of same sex love traditionally ranged from fire and brimstone maledictions to secrecy and scandal Until recently legal positions across the western world reflected the legacies of the British and French empires as well as Christianity particularly Catholicism In recent years however there has been a revolution in attitudes towards same sex relationships This poses hitherto unanswered questions what historical complexities lie behind the revolutionary shift from punitive attitudes to legal endorsement of same sex relationships Given the cultural variety of historical attitudes to same sex relationships why has their legal acceptance been so international The essays in this volume provide answers to these questions offering the first international overview of the topic While other studies have attempted to explain the change in legal and social treatment of same sex relationships in a national context or within a shorter time frame this is the first volume to examine the topic from the French Revolution to the present day bringing together a diverse array of perspectives over a range of countries It is an important volume for students and scholars of queer history the history of sexuality law and sociology Visions of Belonging Judith E. Smith, 2004 Elaine May author of Homeward Bound American Families in the Cold War Era
