

NATIONALISM

Nationalism is the belief in your country's inherent greatness. Nationalists believe their nation sits at the top of a hierarchy of power and greatness.

DEFINITION

A nationalist doesn't just love their country. They see the world as a power struggle between nations and believe their nation should win that power struggle.

It is different from patriots, who love their culture and country without comparison to (or feelings of superiority) over other nations and cultures.

EXAMPLES

Examples of nationalism include xenophobia, intolerance, isolationism, expansionist military crusades, and enacting anti-immigrant policies due to xenophobia.

Nationalism can lead to discrimination and prejudice, whereas patriotism is positive because it represents love of nation without the sense of superiority that nationalists have.
