Saint-Aubin,2015-07-15 This book examines the memoir of Toussaint Louverture a former slave general in the French army and leader of the Haitian Revolution and the memoir of his son Isaac The Revolution and its leaders have been studied and written about extensively Until recently 2004 however the memoir of Toussaint has received little attention and only as a historical document This is the first study that explores the 1802 work foremost as a literary text a creative production that deploys the techniques of fiction and drama to make truth claims about the past moreover this is the first book length study of Isaac Louverture s memoir The two texts are read as examples of how black men thought of themselves as men citizens and therefore how they expressed their masculinity at that historical moment as experiences of mourning and loss This study builds upon three areas of scholarship the tradition of memoir writing historicist readings of Toussaint s memoir and descriptions and theories of men and masculinity within the black Atlantic The study distinguishes itself in ways that will make it of interest to more than just historians in addition to using the intersection of race and masculinity as an analytical tool it speaks to the nature of literary creativity and it draws from studies examining the relationship between history memory and fiction As a result scholars and students in literary and cultural criticism as well as those in gender and diasporic studies will also find this study of interest and value Memoirs of Napoleon Bonaparte; 1802-1803 Louis Antoine Fauvelet De Bourrienne,2022-12-20 The Memoir of General Toussaint Louverture Toussaint Louverture,2014 This is the memoir of a Haitian revolutionary written shortly before his death in the French prison of Fort de Joux It retraces Louverture s career as a slave rebel and governor It provides an alternative perspective to anonymous plantation records quantitative analyses of slave trading ventures or slave narratives mediated by white authors The ^AMemoir of Toussaint Louverture Philippe R.
