The Writer ,1894 Identity, Diaspora and Return in American Literature Maria Antònia Oliver-Rotger,2014-09-19 This volume combines literary analysis and theoretical approaches to mobility diasporic identities and the construction of space to explore the different ways in which the notion of return shapes contemporary ethnic writing such as fiction ethnography memoir and film Through a wide variety of ethnic experiences ranging from the Transatlantic Asian American Latino a and Caribbean alongside their corresponding forms of displacement political exile war trauma and economic migration the essays in this collection connect the intimate experience of the returning subject to multiple locations historical experiences inter subjective relations and cultural interactions They challenge the idea of the narrative of return as a journey back to the untouched roots and home that the ethnic subject left behind Their diacritical approach combines on the one hand a sensitivity to the context and structural elements of modern diaspora and on the other an analysis of the individual psychological processes inherent to the experience of displacement and return such as nostalgia memory and belonging In the narratives of return analyzed in this volume space and identity are never static or easily definable rather they are in process and subject to change as they are always entangled in the historical and inter subjective relations ensuing from displacement and mobility This book will interest students and scholars who wish to further explore the role of American literature within current debates on globalization migration and ethnicity Music in Modern Japanese and Hebrew Literatures Shirah Malka Cohen,2025-05-06 Music in Modern Japanese and Hebrew Literatures examines the place of classical music in early 20th century Japanese and Hebrew literatures As this book shows both Japanese and Hebrew writers of the period made use of Western classical music in their novels and short stories in order to explore issues of belonging cultural and literary identity and artistic integrity Hence by analysing the appearance of such music in the writing of Japanese writers such as Nagai Kaf Shiga Naoya and Uchida Hyakken and Hebrew writers such as Leah Goldberg Gershon Shofman and Ya akov Horowitz this book sets an intriguing narrative of writers interaction with a modernizing world and their struggles to make sense of multitudes of cultural influences Through such struggles these Japanese and Hebrew writers created unique visions of literature that constitute this book argues a cosmopolitan literary sphere In looking into these matters this book aims to recontextualize the place of Japanese and Hebrew literatures of the early 20th century in relation to each other as well as European culture and to create a new and exciting approach to the study of World Literature

Modernist Soundscapes Angela Frattarola, 2018-11-12 This study questions how early twentieth century auditory technologies altered sound perception and how these developments shaped the modernist novel Without polarizing vision and audition this book reveals how modernists tend to use auditory perception to connect characters shifting the subject from a distanced judgmental observer to a reverberating body attuned to the moment Education, 1924
