Gelvin, 2005 In the wake of 11 September 2001 there has been much talk about the inevitable clash between East and West This book presents an alternative approach to understanding the genealogy of contemporary events By taking students and the general reader on a guided tour of the past five hundred years of Middle Eastern history

G. Fraser,2021-11-15 A history of the last century of tensions in the Middle East Until the First World War the Ottoman Empire had dominated the Middle East for four centuries Its collapse coupled with the subsequent clash of European imperial policies unleashed a surge of political feelings among the people of the Middle East as they vied for national self determination Over the century that followed the region has become almost synonymous with unrest and conflict An accessible survey of the last century Contested Lands tells the story of what happened in the Middle East and what it means today T G Fraser analyzes the fault lines of the tension including the damage brought by imperialism the creation of the State of Israel competition between secular rulers and emerging democratic and theocratic forces and the rise of Arab Nationalism in the face of fraying regional alliances and the Islamic revival Fraser offers a close look at how the events of the twenty first century the tragedy of 9 11 the Arab Spring and Syria s civil war have combined with complex social and economic changes to transform the region Untangling the history of the Middle East this book offers a detailed and insightful picture of the region and why its heritage remains important today A History of the Middle East Georges Corm,2010 Offers an account of the history of the Middle East from before Islam In order to paint a true picture of this complex part of the world
