The Military Use Of Land A History Of The Defence Estate:

The Military Use of Land John Childs, 1998 This pioneering history of military land use covers firing and manoeuvre ranges training facilities computerized simulation barracks accommodation educational establishments fortifications airfields dockyards depots bases cemeteries memorials battlefield conservation museums and the impact of the military on the urban landscape Examples are drawn from numerous countries Stretching from the Ancient World to the present day the book informs the contemporary debate about the extent of military land use

An Environmental History of the UK Defence Estate, 1945 to the Present Marianna Dudley, 2012-05-03 A history of the military use of the landscape and the rise of military environmentalism through the twentieth century

Militarized Landscapes Chris Pearson, Peter Coates, Tim Cole, 2010-06-03 The black smoke billowing from burning oil wells during the Gulf War of 1990 91 directed media and public attention towards war's devastating environmental impact Yet even before the first bomb is dropped preparation for warfare materially and imaginatively reshapes rural landscapes and environments This volume is the first to explore the comparative histories and geographies of militarized landscapes Moving beyond the narrow definition of militarized landscapes as theatres of war it treats them as simultaneously material and cultural sites that have been partially or fully mobilized to achieve military aims Ranging from the Korean DMZ to nuclear testing sites in the American West and from Gettysburg to Salisbury Plain Militarized Landscapes focuses on these often secretive hidden dangerous and invariably controversial sites that occupy huge swathes of national territories

Rethinking Leviathan John Brewer, Eckhart Hellmuth, 1999 Rethinking Leviathan offers a new approach to the history of the modern state It concentrates on the eighteenth century and on two cases those of Britain and Germany These two countries have always been test cases for historians and social scientists looking at the development of the modern state because they have been seen as presenting the two main alternatives in the state building process Using a comparative study of the British and German states including Prussia it deconstructs certain clichés about them and forces us to rethink how to study states in the early modern era The volume is less concerned with the theory of the state or the formal constitutional conditions under which governments operate than with their actual modus operandi The subjects covered in this volume include some which have so far been ignored in reconstructing the history of the modern state

The Oxford History of Modern War Charles Townshend, 2005 Offering a comprehensive overview of military conflict over several centuries this book consists of fascinating thematic chapters covering air and sea warfare combat experience technology and even opposition to war

The Oxford Illustrated History of Modern War Charles Townshend, 2000-06-29 How has war shaped modern society and vice versa How has it changed over the centuries between the introduction of firearms and the invention of the atom bomb How is war waged today This excitingly illustrated book examines the techniques technology and theory of warfare from the military revolution of the seventeenth century to the present day The expert contributors explore major developments and themes including the extraordinary achievements of

Napoleon's armies the role of nationalism in battlegrounds as various as the American Civil War and the former Yugoslavia colonial wars the concept and reality of total war guerrilla warfare and people's wars The Oxford Illustrated History of Modern War offers a comprehensive overview of military conflict over several centuries with fascinating thematic chapters covering air and sea warfare combat experience technology and even opposition to war Contributors Jeremy Black University of Exeter John Bourne University of Birmingham John Childs University of Leeds Jean Bethke Elshtain University of Chicago Alan Forrest University of York David French University College London John B Hattendorf Naval War College Rhode Island Richard Holmes Cranfield University Richard Overy King's College London Douglas Porch US Postgraduate Naval School Monterey California Adam Roberts University of Oxford Mark Roseman Keele University Philip Towle University of Cambridge Charles Townshend Keele University Martin van Creveld Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Mobilizing nature Chris Pearson, 2017-10-03 Mobilizing nature traces the environmental history of war and militarisation in France from the creation of Châlons Camp in 1857 to military environmentalist policies in the twentieth century It offers a fresh perspective on the well known histories of the Franco Prussian War Western Front 1914-18 Second World War Cold War and the anti base campaign at Larzac whilst uncovering the largely hidden history of the numerous military bases and other installations that pepper the French countryside Mobilising nature argues that the history of war and militarisation can only be fully understood if human and environmental histories are considered in tandem Preparing for and conducting wars were only made possible through the active manipulation and mobilisation of topographies climatic conditions vegetation and animals But the military has not monopolised the mobilisation of nature Protesters against militarisation have consistently drawn on images of peaceful and productive civilian environments as the preferable alternative to destructive tanks and bombs Written in an accessible style Mobilizing nature will appeal to readers interested in modern France environmental history military geographies and histories anti military protests and environmentalism

Australian Contributions to Strategic and Military Geography Stuart Pearson, Jane L. Holloway, Richard Thackway, 2018-03-08 Drawing from military geography's spatial roots its embrace of dynamic systems and integration of human and biophysical environments this book helps in understanding the value of analyzing patterns processes and systems and cross scale and multi disciplinary ways of acting in a complex world while making the case for a resurgence of strategic and military geography in Australia Here leading experts demonstrate that geography retains its relevance in clarifying the scale and dynamics of defense activities in assessments of the international regional national and site impacts of changes in physical cyber and human geographies The cases presented show Australia contributing to a growing strategic and military geography

Architectures Andrew Ballantyne, 2008-04-15 Architectures Modernism and After surveys the history of the building from the advent of industrialization to the cultural imperatives of the present moment Brings together international art and architectural historians to consider a range of topics that have influenced the shape profile and aesthetics of the built environment Presents crucial moments in the history of the field when the architecture of the past is made to respond to new and changing cultural circumstances Provides a view of architectural history as a part of a continuing dialogue between aesthetic criteria and social and cultural imperatives Part of the New Interventions in Art History Series which is published in conjunction with the Association of Art Historians

Fields of Battle P. Doyle, Matthew R. Bennett, 2013-03-14 Terrain has a profound effect upon the strategy and tactics of any military engagement and has consequently played an important role in determining history In addition the landscapes of battle and the geology which underlies them has helped shape the cultural iconography of battle certainly within the 20th century In the last few years this has become a fertile topic of scientific and historical exploration and has given rise to a number of conferences and books The current volume stems from the international Terrain in Military History conference held in association with the Imperial War Museum London and the Royal Engineers Museum Chatham at the University of Greenwich in January 2000 This conference brought together historians geologists military enthusiasts and terrain analysts from military academic and amateur backgrounds with the aim of exploring the application of modern tools of landscape visualisation to understanding historical battlefields This theme was the subject of a Leverhulme Trust grant F 345 E awarded to the University of Greenwich and administered by us in 1998 which aimed to use the tools of modern landscape visualisation in understanding the influence of terrain in the First World War This volume forms part of the output from this grant and is part of our wider exploration of the role of terrain in military history Many individuals contributed to the organisation of the original conference and to the production of this volume
