The Ottoman Empire The Great Powers And The Straits Question 1870 1887 By:

The Great Powers and the End of the Ottoman Empire Marian Kent, 2005-07-27 These studies of the foreign policy of each of the Great Powers and the Ottoman Empire examine how far the end of the Ottoman Empire was the result of Great Power imperialism and how far the result of structural weaknesses

The Eastern Question in 1870s Britain Leslie Rogné Schumacher, 2023-09-30 This book examines mid Victorian discourse on the expansion of the British Empire's role in the Middle East. It investigates how British political leaders, journalists and the general public responded to events in the Ottoman Empire which many if not most people in Britain came to see as trudging towards inevitable chaos and destruction. Although this Eastern Question on a post Ottoman future was ostensibly a matter of international politics and sometimes conflict, this study argues that the ideas underpinning it were conceived, shaped and enforced according to domestic British attitudes. In this way, this book presents the Eastern Question as as much a British question as one related in any way to the Ottoman Empire. Particularly in the crucial decade of the 1870s, debates in Victorian society on the Eastern Question served as proxies for other pressing issues of the day including electoral reform, changing religious attitudes, public education and the costs of maintaining Britain's empire. This book offers new perspectives on the Eastern Question's relationship to these trends in Victorian society, culture and politics, highlighting its significance in understanding Britain's imperial programme more widely in the second half of the nineteenth century

The Rise and Fall of the Great Powers Paul

Kennedy, 2010-10-27 About national and international power in the modern or Post Renaissance period. Explains how the various powers have risen and fallen over the 5 centuries since the formation of the new monarchies in W Europe

The Establishment of the Balkan National States, 1804-1920 Charles Jelavich, Barbara Jelavich, 1986-11 This highly readable and thoroughly researched volume offers an excellent account of the development of seven Balkan peoples during the nineteenth and the first part of the twentieth centuries. Professors Charles and Barbara Jelavich have brought their rich knowledge of the Albanians, Bulgarians, Croats, Greeks, Romanians, Serbians and Slovenes to bear on every aspect of the area's history: political, diplomatic, economic, social and cultural. It took more than a century after the first Balkan uprising, that of the Serbians in 1804, for the Balkan people to free themselves from Ottoman and Habsburg rule. The Serbians and the Greeks were the first to do so; the Albanians, the Croats and the Slovenes the last. For each people, the national revival took its own form and independence was achieved in its own way. The authors explore the contrasts and similarities among the peoples within the context of the Ottoman Empire and Europe

Great Powers and Geopolitical Change Jakub J.

Grygiel, 2007-02-01 Named by Foreign Affairs as a book to read on geopolitics. In an era of high technology and instant communication, the role of geography in the formation of strategy and politics in international relations can be undervalued. But the mountains of Afghanistan and the scorching sand storms of Iraq have provided stark reminders that geographical realities continue to have a profound impact on the success of military campaigns. Here, political scientist Jakub J. Grygiel brings to light the importance of incorporating geography into grand strategy He argues that states can increase and maintain their position of power by pursuing a geostrategy that focuses on control of resources and lines of communication Grygiel examines case studies of Venice the Ottoman Empire and China in the global fifteenth century all great powers that faced a dramatic change in geopolitics when new routes and continents were discovered The location of resources the layout of trade networks and the stability of state boundaries played a large role in the success or failure of these three powers Grygiel asserts that though many other aspects of foreign policy have changed throughout history strategic response to geographical features remains one of the most salient factors in establishing and maintaining power in the international arena

The Eastern Question 1774-1923 Alexander Lyon Macfie,2014-07-30 A clear and concise guide to the Eastern Question the problem facing the European states of how to react to the decline of the Ottoman Empire A L MacFie s study shows how the question was a major factor in shaping the policies of all the major powers from the Russo Turkish War of 1768-74 down to the Treaty of Lausanne in 1923 The European Commission of the Danube, 1856-1948 Constantin Ardeleanu,2020-02-25 The history of the world s second international organisation an innovative techno political institution established by Europe s Concert of Powers to remove insecurity from the Lower Danube Russification in the Baltic Provinces and Finland, 1855-1914 Edward C. Constantinople Philip Mansel,2011-11-10 Philip Mansel s highly acclaimed history absorbingly charts the interaction between the vibrantly cosmopolitan capital of Constantinople the city of the world s desire and its ruling family In 1453 Mehmed the Conqueror entered Constantinople on a white horse beginning an Ottoman love affair with the city that lasted until 1924 when the last Caliph hurriedly left on the Orient Express For almost five centuries Constantinople with its enormous racial and cultural diversity was the centre of the dramatic and often depraved story of an extraordinary dynasty
